Definitions ¶¶

As used in these rules, unless the context requires otherwise:¶¶

(1) "Board" means the State Board of Tax Practitioners.¶¶

(2) "Branch Office" means an office or other place of business where clients would normally or usually contact a licensee.¶¶

(3) "Client" means a person for whom a licensee performs or agrees to perform professional services for valuable consideration and the services are related directly or indirectly to the client's personal income taxes.¶¶

(4) "Competence" means preparation in compliance with state and federal tax codes. If a preparer does not have experience in the application of a section of the tax code but must use that section of the tax code to correctly answer a tax question, then the preparer must engage in research sufficient to gain competence in the previously unfamiliar section of the tax code such that the preparer may competently answer the pending tax question. If the preparer, after engaging in the above research, is still not sufficiently experienced, so as to competently answer the pending tax question, then the preparer must, as required pursuant to OAR 800-010-0017(1), seek the assistance of a person who is competent in the preparation of tax questions from that section of the tax code. The standard to which tax preparers will be held is:¶¶

(a) ~~was~~ Was the preparer specifically knowledgeable about the fields of taxation in which they practiced,¶¶

(b) ~~did~~ Did the preparer perform the required techniques for the matter undertaken with skill,¶¶

(c) ~~did~~ Did the preparer identify the issues beyond their competence relevant to the matter undertaken,¶¶

(d) ~~did~~ Did the preparer seek and secure appropriate education or supervision to ensure accuracy in the positions taken in the matter if engagement on the matter continued, and,¶¶

(e) ~~did~~ Did the preparer properly prepare and carry through to the end the matter undertaken.¶¶

(5) "Confidential Information" means information furnished to a licensee for, or in connection with, the preparation of an income tax return.¶¶

(6) "Designated Consultant" (DC) means a Licensed Tax Consultant assigned by an Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business as the person responsible for overseeing all Oregon tax preparation activities of the business at a specific Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business location whether located inside or outside of the State of Oregon. A Designated Consultant's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, overarching supervision of the office infrastructure and the employees hired to engage in the preparation of Oregon personal income tax returns for another and for valuable consideration for the Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business location at which the Designated Consultant is assigned. The Designated Consultant and the designating business shall each be responsible for the business's compliance with the laws and rules of the Board. See also, OAR 800-025-0040.¶¶

(7) "Experience" means having sufficient knowledge to know when to seek assistance from a preparer competent in the state or federal tax code. Any preparer, who has completed the Board approved eighty- ~~(80)~~ hour tax preparer class, and who has also taken and passed the licensed tax preparer examination, is presumed to have sufficient experience to know when a matter is outside of their field of experience and their competence so as to require that they first seek assistance from a competent preparer in a section of the state or federal tax code with which they themselves are unfamiliar. Veteran tax preparers (whether licensed as LTPs or LTCs) who were grandfathered in nineteen-seventy-three (1973) are also presumed to have sufficient experience to know when a matter is outside of their field of experience and competence so as to require that they first seek assistance from a competent preparer in a section of the state or federal tax code with which they themselves are unfamiliar.¶¶

(8) "Out-of-State unlicensed preparation of Oregon Personal Income Tax Returns for Oregon residents" means the preparation through solicitation, advertising or contract of Oregon Personal Income Tax Returns for Oregon residents by an out-of-state tax preparation business, its employees or contractors who receive Oregon Personal Income Tax Return information from Oregon residents using resources, including but not limited to, physical or electronic drop boxes, digital portals, or other means, when the out-of-state business(s), its employees or contractors are not exempt from licensure under ORS 673.610 and the preparation of Oregon Personal Income Tax Returns is not being supervised by an Oregon licensed Resident Tax Consultant.¶¶

(9) "Out-of-state franchisee" means an unregistered franchisee of a multi-state tax preparation franchisor when the multistate franchisor normally conducts business in Oregon through registered Oregon franchises that employ or contract with Oregon licensed tax preparers and tax consultants to prepare Oregon residents' state ~~and federal Oregon~~ or federal personal income tax returns.¶¶

(10) "Preparing or Preparation of tax returns" as used in these rules means the gathering of necessary information including but not limited to information about the taxpayer's personal identity, income, expenses, deductions, identifying forms, and the action or process of making ready for use or consideration the tax return.

(11) "Tax Returns" for purposes of these rules means Oregon residents' state or federal personal income tax returns.

(12) "License" means proof of authorization issued by the Board to the effect that the licensee at the time of authorization was authorized to work in the tax preparation field for a set period of time as a Licensed Tax Consultant or Licensed Tax Preparer.

(13) "Licensee" means any person holding a currently valid Oregon Board of Tax Practitioners license including a Licensed Tax Consultant, Licensed Tax Preparer, or any person, corporation, firm or partnership falling within the scope of ORS 673.605 to 673.735.

(14) "Registered" or "Registrant" means a person who is registered as a Registered Tax Aide with the Board.

(15) "Registered Tax Aide practice" means any service assisting in the preparation of tax returns as permitted under these rules that is performed by a Registered Tax Aide under the supervision of a Licensed Tax Consultant.

(16) An Oregon licensed "Resident Consultant" (RC) means the Licensed Tax Consultant who must be physically or virtually (in real time) present in the office at least fifty percent (50%) of the time. Of that fifty percent (50%), at least fifty percent (50%) of the time must be spent physically present in the office during the time the principal or branch office is open to the public for tax preparation, assistance, and advice during each week from January 1st to the federal filing deadline without extension and during each month for the remainder of the year for year-round offices in accordance with OAR 800-025-0050. The Resident Consultant shall be available during that time to supervise, and answer tax questions posed by the other Licensed Tax Consultants and Licensed Tax Preparers employed at the Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business principal or branch office - whether located inside or outside of the State of Oregon - to which the Oregon Licensed Resident Consultant is assigned.

(17) "Tax Consultant or Tax Preparer Practice" and a licensee's "professional practice" means any service performed or supervised by the licensee for a client, including any advice or recommendation made by the licensee to the client, when it is related directly or indirectly to the client's personal income tax return, whether or not the licensee also prepares the client's personal income tax returns.

(18) "Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business" means a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other entity, registered with the board - whether located inside or outside of the State of Oregon - that offers Oregon personal income tax preparation services, performed by active licensees, to the public, for valuable consideration, whether operated under an individual's own name or under an assumed business or corporate name, and including Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Businesses operated on a full- or part-time basis.

(19) "Valuable Consideration"; as used in ORS 673.615 and OAR chapter 800, means a benefit that accrues to a person as a result of preparing, advising, or assisting in the preparation of personal income tax returns for others, or offering to perform such services. Valuable consideration need not be translatable into dollars and cents.

(20) "Negligent-" See OAR 800-010-0017(2).

(21) "Incompetent-" See OAR 800-010-0017(1).

Integrity and Objectivity ¶¶

(1) A licensee shall not knowingly misrepresent facts while preparing, assisting, or advising in the preparation of income tax returns. A licensee may resolve doubt in favor of a client if there is reasonable support for the position.¶¶

(2) A licensee who finds that a client has made an error, or omitted information or related material required on an income tax return, shall promptly advise the client of such error or omission.¶¶

(3) A licensee shall not arrange for or permit a client's individual income tax refund check to be mailed or made payable to the licensee at any time, for any purpose.¶¶

(4) Commissions earned for additional personal services by the licensee, such as real estate, insurance, investment, and securities sales, may be earned if the licensee also holds any license, permit, or registration required by law to perform the additional personal services. The licensee performing additional personal services shall disclose in writing that the licensee will be compensated for performing the additional personal services. The client must be requested to acknowledge receipt of the disclosure in writing.¶¶

(5) Fees incurred in the preparation of tax returns must be stated separately from, and in addition to, any other professional additional personal services provided.¶¶

(6) (a) A licensee shall, upon written request by a client, make available or return within a reasonable time to the client, personal papers or source material in the manner furnished to the licensee by the client;¶¶

(b) A licensee who has provided a tax return to a client shall, upon written request by the client, make available within a reasonable time to the client, copies of depreciation schedules that support the return;¶¶

(c) A licensee is not required to furnish records to a client more than once under this subsection.¶¶

(7) In addition to all active licensees, registrants, and applicants for licensure or registration must report to the board, within fifteen (15) days of occurrence, any:¶¶

(a) Conduct resulting in the conviction of a felony under the laws of any state or of the United States; or¶¶

(b) Conviction of any crime, an essential element of which is dishonesty, fraud or deception under the laws of any state or of the United States; or¶¶

(c) Conviction of willful failure to pay any tax, file any tax return, keep records or supply information required under the tax laws of any state or of the United States, or conviction of the willful making, rendering, delivery, disclosure, signing or verifying of any false or fraudulent list, return, account, statement, or other document, or of supplying any false or fraudulent information, required under the tax laws of any state or of the United States; or¶¶

(d) The cancelation, revocation or refusal to renew by any state or federal agency of, or entry of a consent order, stipulated agreement or judgment related to, the person's authority to practice law, to practice as a certified public accountant or a public accountant or to practice under other regulatory law in any state, or to practice as an enrolled agent, if the grounds for the cancelation, revocation, refusal to renew, consent order, stipulated agreement or judgment were related to income tax preparation or if dishonesty, fraud or deception was involved; or¶¶

(e) The cancelation, revocation or refusal to renew by any state or federal agency of, or entry of a consent order, stipulated agreement or judgment related to, a business's authority to conduct operations related to the practice of law, certified public accountancy, public accountancy or other services provided under regulatory law in any state, or to provide enrolled agent services, if the grounds for the cancelation, revocation, refusal to renew, consent order, stipulated agreement or judgment involved the conduct or actions of the licensee or applicant and:¶¶

(A) Were related to income tax preparation; or¶¶

(B) Involved dishonesty, fraud or deception.¶¶

(8) An applicant, registrant, or licensee shall not engage in fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest conduct related to professional practice.¶¶

(9) An applicant, registrant, or licensee shall not violate any position of trust, including positions of trust outside the licensee's professional practice.¶¶

(10) An applicant, registrant, or licensee must be current on all tax return filings and all tax payment plans pertaining to the applicant or licensee and/or the applicant or licensee's business before a license can be issued or renewed.¶¶

(11) An applicant, registrant, or licensee shall not engage in any form of witness intimidation either before, during or after an administrative hearing proceeding.

Accountability ¶¶

(1) A Licensed Tax Consultant or Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business shall only allow persons who are licensed with the board as Tax Consultants, Tax Preparers, or as described in ORS 673.610, to practice in the consultant's or Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business's name when preparing Oregon Personal Income Tax Returns. ¶¶

(2) A Licensed Tax Consultant shall not permit the use of the consultant's license to enable others to establish and carry on a business for the preparation of personal income tax returns wherein the consultant's only interest is the receipt of a fee for use of the consultant's license and the Licensed Tax Consultant does not provide supervision of the tax preparation activities as defined in OAR 800-025-0050. ¶¶

(3) A Licensed Tax Consultant and a Licensed Tax Preparer shall both attest that the Licensed Tax Preparer who is assisting with preparation of, or preparing tax returns to which the Licensed Tax Consultant's license number or Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business information is affixed, is: ¶¶

(a) Fully subject to the supervision of the Licensed Tax Consultant or Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business, as defined in OAR 800-025-0050; or ¶¶

(b) Acting as an agent of the Licensed Tax Consultant or Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Business. ¶¶

(4) A Licensed Tax Preparer shall not engage in the preparation of tax returns, assist in such preparation, gather tax information, or provide tax advice for valuable consideration unless the Licensed Tax Preparer is under the supervision of a Licensed Tax Consultant as defined in OAR 800-025-0050. ¶¶

(5) A Registered Tax Aide shall not engage in the preparation of tax returns or provide tax advice for valuable consideration. ¶¶

(6) A licensee shall not maintain a financial interest in, or hold an employment position with, any business entity that offers personal income tax preparation services, if any other person who maintains a financial interest in the entity, or holds a management position involving authority over the business operations of the entity: ¶¶

(a) Has had a tax consultant's ~~or license~~, tax preparer's license permanently, or registered tax aide's registration revoked; or ¶¶

(b) Is a person to whom the Board has refused to issue or renew a license; or ¶¶

(c) When another state regulatory agency, or the Internal Revenue Service, has revoked or refused to issue or renew an occupational license, registration, or permit held or requested by that person because of conduct involving tax preparation or dishonesty. ¶¶

(67) If required to do so under section (56) of this rule, a licensee shall be allowed a reasonable time, not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) calendar days, to sever an existing relationship with a person whose license is revoked or refused. ¶¶

(78) Section (56) of this rule does not apply to a licensee or a person described in subsections (56)(a) through (c) of this rule, whose only financial interest in a tax preparation business is the ownership of ten percent (10%) or less of the stock in a publicly- held corporation. ¶¶

(89) In addition to the original returns filed on behalf of a client, at least one (1) copy of the complete set of the tax returns, including all accompanying forms, schedules (specifically depreciation schedules) and statements must be supplied to the client in either paper or electronic form (USB drive or confidential portal only - not email) consistent with OAR 800-010-0020(3). A licensee is not required to provide a free copy of the tax returns to a client more than once - with some exceptions: ¶¶

(a) In the case of a joint tax return, each spouse is entitled, upon request, to a free copy of the tax return; ¶¶

(b) In the case of fire, flood, or other natural disasters, each client (and in the case of a joint tax return, each spouse) is entitled, upon request, to a free copy of the tax return; and ¶¶

(c) In the case of theft of paper file or computer file each client (and in the case of a joint tax return, each spouse) is entitled, upon request, to a free copy of the tax return.

Continuing Education ¶¶

The continuing education rules in OAR 800 Division 15 apply ~~only~~ to license renewals requested by Oregon Licensed Tax Consultants and Oregon Licensed Tax Preparers; and registration renewals for Registered Tax Aides under OAR 800-016-0001¶

(1) Except for renewal of an initial license, ~~a licensee or registration~~, a licensee or registrant shall attest on the renewal to having completed at least thirty (30) hours of acceptable continuing education since the last renewal date.¶

(2) Each licensee or registrant shall attest on the renewal to, and shall provide verifiable proof of, having completed, within the thirty (30) hour continuing education requirement, a minimum of two (2) hours of acceptable continuing education in professional conduct and ethics since the last renewal date. The two (2) hours of acceptable continuing education in professional conduct and ethics may be satisfied through any professional conduct and ethics program that meets the general continuing education requirements described in section (3) of this rule.¶

(3) Continuing education programs in professional conduct and ethics required by subsection (2) of this rule are eligible for continuing education credit if the program is offered by a sponsor approved by the Board and includes information pertaining to at least one or more of the following topics:¶

(a) Review of Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules pertaining to the preparation of individual income tax returns;¶

(b) Review of examples of issues or situations that require an understanding of Federal or State statutes, rules, and case law relevant to all licensees and registrants;¶

(c) Review of guidelines adopted by the Internal Revenue Office of Professional Responsibility and policies outlined in the Internal Revenue Treasury Department Circular 230;¶

(d) Review of the code of professional conduct adopted by the Board and set forth in OAR chapter 800, division 010;¶

(e) Review of recent case law pertaining to ethics and professional responsibilities for the licensed tax consultant and tax preparer profession.¶

(4) Each licensee and registrant shall report compliance with the continuing education requirements on the license or registrant renewal document. Each licensee or registrant shall provide verifiable proof in the form of printed or digital continuing education completion certificate(s) or printed or digital continuing education provider created list(s) (from providers approved by the Board only) of courses completed by the licensee. ~~Licensee or registrant.~~ Licensees or registrants who take continuing education courses from the Internal Revenue Service through their online PTIN account may provide a printout or digital list of their Internal Revenue Service PTIN account continuing education completion page. All licensees and registrants are subject to the provisions of OAR 800-015-0015 pertaining to the Board's periodic auditing of continuing education documents.¶

(5) Proof of participation in required continuing education is the responsibility of the licensee. To ensure that proof of attainment of required continuing education is available for audit or investigation by the Board, licensees and registrants shall maintain certificates for at least four (4) years following each continuing education cycle and renewal ~~for the tax practitioner license period.~~¶

(6) Continuing education credit will be accepted only for courses and seminars that comply with all Board rules regarding continuing education.¶

(7) The Board may verify continuing education information submitted by licensees and registrants.¶

(8) Education hours earned in excess of thirty (30) hours annually cannot be carried over from one renewal period to the next. However, hours earned during the month of renewal not claimed on the current renewal may be submitted with the following year's renewal.¶

(9) Continuing education credit shall be granted only once during a license or registration year for attendance at or instruction of duplicate seminars offered by the same sponsor or instructor.¶

(10) Continuing education credit for courses at accredited universities and colleges will be fifteen (15) hours for each semester hour credit and ten (10) hours for each quarter hour credit. For all live courses including interactive webinars, webcasts, IRS telephone forums, and seminars, one (1) fifty (50) minute education hour of continuing education credit will be granted for each hour of classroom attendance.¶

(11) Continuing education credits are accepted for instructors of basic or advanced courses or seminars. The credit allowed will be two (2) hours for each hour of teaching, which includes preparation time. No more than half

(2) total required continuing education credit can be in teaching.¶

(12) Correspondence and online study courses are accepted if the program and sponsor comply with all Board rules regarding continuing education and:¶

(a) The sponsor requires evidence of satisfactory completion of workbooks or examinations before certificates are issued:¶

(b) The hours credited do not exceed the credit that would be allowed in a resident course covering the same material; and¶

(c) Course outlines, workbooks, and exams must be submitted to the Board for approval of course content and credit hours claimed prior to offering the material to the public unless already approved by the California Tax Education Council (CTEC), or the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), or the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA).¶

(13) "In-Company" instruction may be accepted if the course or seminar is presented to ten (10) or more people and all other requirements for continuing education sponsors are met. Portions of such educational sessions devoted to administrative and firm matters shall not be accepted.¶

(14) If a licensee or registrant claims credit for a course or seminar in the reasonable belief the instruction qualifies as acceptable continuing education, but the Board finds all or part of the hours claimed to be unacceptable, the licensee or registrant may be granted an additional period of time, not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days, to make up the rejected hours.¶

(15) Licensees who have extenuating circumstances and are unable to obtain all their continuing education by their license due dates may make application, by completing a form prescribed by the Board, for a waiver of continuing education hours.

(C) The maintaining in principal and branch offices of current federal and Oregon state personal income tax reference materials in hard copy or digital format; and¶

(D) The provision of access to the assigned Designated Consultant(s) and Resident Consultant(s) (including telephone or electronic media access) so that Oregon Licensed Tax Preparers are encouraged to seek tax law consultation and advice; and¶

(E) The exercising of control by the assigned Designated Consultant(s) and Resident Consultant(s) over the tax preparation practices, and all other matters governed by the Board's statutes and rules, in each principal and branch office.¶

(3) Licensed Tax Preparers, who have not had at least two hundred and forty (240) hours and one (1) year's tax return preparation experience during the previous three (3) year time period, must be under the immediate, onsite supervision of a more experienced tax preparer or tax consultant personnel one hundred percent (100%) of the time when preparing, advising, or assisting in the preparation of tax returns.¶

(4) Each principal and branch office must be under the management and supervision of a Licensed Tax Consultant. Supervision with regard to Registered Tax Aide means: ¶

(a) Registered Tax Aides must be under the immediate onsite supervision of a licensed tax consultant one hundred percent (100%) of the time when working on entering data into a personal income tax return. A Licensed Tax Consultant may supervise no more than two (2) Registered Tax Aides at any time, and ¶

(b) a system of selecting, training and controlling the Registered Tax Aides including having a set of procedures by which the Licensed Tax Consultant is assured that the Licensed Tax Preparer is providing competent workmanship and abiding by the Board's statutes and rules. Such procedures shall include:¶

(A) An examination and review of all data entry work performed by the Registered Tax Aide for errors; and¶

(B) Giving notice to the Registered Tax Aide of any adjustments after examination and review; and ¶

(C) Exercising on-site control by the supervising Licensed Tax Consultant over the data entry practices of the Registered Tax Aide, governed by the Board statutes and Board rules, whether they work together in the principal or at a branch office. ¶

(5) Licensed Tax Consultants who employ Registered Tax Aides must report to the Board the names of all Registered Tax Aides.¶

(7) If a Registered Tax Aide is found by the Board to be in violation of the Board statutes or Board rules, the Registered Tax Aide if under the proper direct onsite supervision of a Licensed Tax Consultant will not be held liable but the responsibility for the Registered Tax Aide will fall upon their supervising Licensed Tax Consultant, unless the supervising Licensed Tax Consultant demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Board that the circumstances that led to the violation occurred without the permission or knowledge of the supervising Licensed Tax Consultant, and that the violation occurred regardless of an adequate system of supervision that would generally prevent such violation. In the case of a corporation, firm, or partnership, one or more of the Designated Consultant, or Resident Consultant, or the corporation, firm or partnership may also be subject to discipline

depending on the circumstances.¶¶

(8) Licensed Tax Consultants who employ any person authorized under ORS 673.610(4) to act in the capacity of Licensed Tax Preparer or Licensed Tax Consultant, under their supervision, shall report to the Board the names of these persons and the basis for their exemption from licensure.¶¶

(59) With the exception of employees authorized under ORS 673.610(4) to act in the capacity of a Licensed Tax Preparer or Licensed Tax Consultant, licensees and Oregon State Registered Tax Preparation Businesses may not permit unlicensed staff to perform any of the following tasks, subject to the noted exceptions:¶¶

(a) Input taxpayer information; or¶¶

(b) provide tax advice orally or in writing (unless the licensee has provided the unlicensed staff member with a draft of what is to be written, emailed or stated orally including attribution to the licensee).¶¶

(6) Unlicensed staff may be permitted to perform the following tasks:¶¶

(a) May accept tax documents from clients and provide them to the assigned tax preparer(s);¶¶

(b) May answer telephones and take oral and in-person messages for the tax preparer(s);¶¶

(c) May make copies of tax documents for the tax preparer(s); and¶¶

(d) May mail or hand deliver copies of tax documents to clients when provided, by the tax preparer(s), with an envelope or folder containing the copies to be mailed or sent by electronic encrypted format.¶¶

(710) If an Oregon Licensed Tax Preparer is found by the Board to be in violation of the board statutes or rules, the Oregon Licensed Tax Consultant(s) responsible for supervision of that Licensed Tax Preparer shall be deemed to be in violation in the same manner and to the same extent, and may be disciplined by the Board regardless of any discipline imposed on the Licensed Tax Preparer, unless the Licensed Tax Consultant(s) demonstrate(s) to the satisfaction of the Board that the circumstances that led to the violation occurred without the permission or knowledge of the Licensed Tax Consultant and that the violation occurred regardless of an adequate system of supervision that would generally prevent such violation. In the case of a corporation, firm, or partnership, both the Designated Consultant and the corporation, firm, or partnership may be disciplined.
