

Reporting Requirements*

Report immediately by telephone upon clinical suspicion - (503) 986-4711

Report within 15 days via the ODA monitored disease reporting form
<https://oda.direct/diseases>

REPORTABLE DISEASES

Viral Diseases

Bacterial Diseases

Parasitic Diseases

 African Horse Sickness

 Bluetongue Virus

 Canine Distemper Virus

 Canine Parvovirus

 Equine Encephalitis Viruses
(EEE, VEE, WEE)

 Feline Immunodeficiency Virus

 Feline Infectious Peritonitis

 Feline Leukemia Virus

 Feline Panleukemia

 Influenza A Virus

 Japanese Encephalitis

 Nipah Virus

 Pseudorabies

 Rabies

 Rift Valley Fever

 SARS-CoV-2

 Virulent Feline Calicivirus

 West Nile Virus

 Anthrax

 Bartonellosis/Cat Scratch Fever

 Bovine Tuberculosis

 Brucellosis

 Campylobacter-Associated Abortion

 Glanders

 Johne's Disease/Paratuberculosis

 Leptospirosis

 Lyme Disease

 Melioidosis

 Plague (Yersinia pestis)

 Q Fever

 Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever

 Salmon Poisoning Disease

 Streptococcus equi subspecies
zooepidemicus

 Tularemia

 Yersiniosis (Y. enterocolitica, Y. pseudotuberculosis)

 Baylisascariasis

 Cryptosporidiosis

 Echinococcosis/Hydatidosis

 Giardiasis

 Heartworm Disease

 Leishmaniasis

 Mange (Sarcoptes scabiei)

 New World Screwworm

 Old World Screwworm

 Surra

 Toxoplasmosis

 Trichinellosis

 Trichomoniasis

 Trypanosomiasis

Fungal Diseases

 Coccidioidomycosis

 Cryptococcosis

 Histoplasmosis

 Systemic Fungal Diseases

Prion Diseases

 Transmissible Spongiform
Encephalopathies (TSEs)

Other

 Occurrence of any unusual, exotic, or foreign animal disease or vector

*This is an abridged list of dog & cat diseases required by law to be reported by veterinarians. Oregon Administrative Rules (603-011-0214 - 603-011-0216) outline the complete lists of diseases of interest to the state and reporting requirements.

For more information on reportable animal diseases in all species visit the ODA webpages at: <https://oda.direct/diseases>

