

Oregon School For the Deaf Girls and Boys Teams at the 2026 Western States Basketball Classic

(All photos credit OSD 11th grader Emma K.)

Coach LeShonDre Brown huddles with the Oregon School for the Deaf girls basketball team to discuss strategy during tournament play at the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Qwinn Pollitt (No. 23) of the Oregon School for the Deaf looks to make a play during tournament action against the Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind.

---

Monica Griffin (No. 22) of the Oregon School for the Deaf pushes through defensive pressure from two Arizona State School for the Deaf and the Blind players during the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Alondra Garcia Sanchez (No. 30) of the Oregon School for the Deaf keeps her eyes on the ball during game action against the Colorado School for the Deaf and the Blind at the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Members of the Oregon School for the Deaf high school girls basketball team display the Western States Basketball Classic championship trophy during the awards ceremony. Several OSD players were also recognized with All-Star Team and All-Star MVP honors.

---

Gloria Flores Estrada (No. 15) of the Oregon School for the Deaf prepares for the opening tip as the championship game begins against the Utah Schools for the Deaf and the Blind at the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Kahmeah Jonaie (No. 0) of the Oregon School for the Deaf signals a play while dribbling the ball during tournament action at the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Members of the Oregon School for the Deaf boys basketball team compete against the Arizona State School for the Deaf and the Blind during tournament play at the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

Monica Griffin (No. 22, 12th grade), named All-Star MVP and Girls All-Star Team, and Qwinn Politt (No. 23, 10th grade), named to the Boys All-Star Team, pose with their medals following the Western States Basketball Classic.

---

OSD girls basketball head coach Mike McDaniel cuts down the net following the championship game, a long-standing basketball tradition after a title win.

---

OSD girls basketball assistant coach Maria De León helps cut down the net following the championship game victory.

---

Oregon School For the Deaf logo.