Essential Skills Panel Recruitment

Opportunity to Contribute to Assessment Policy
ODE is seeking current or former educators with assessment expertise for the Essential Skills Review Panel. For this year's recruitment, we are seeking panelists who have experience working with high school English Language Learners and/or students with disabilities. We are also seeking panelists who work in community colleges, colleges, or universities.

Responsibilities
AESRP makes recommendations on:
1. The phasing in of Essential Skills for inclusion in the high school diploma and the modified diploma requirements;
2. The adoption of assessment options to measure students' proficiency in the approved Essential Skills for the purpose of the high school diploma or the modified diploma; and
3. The achievement standards used to determine student eligibility for the high school diploma or the modified diploma.

Commitment
AESRP panelist serve a three-year term, which includes participation in three Friday meetings per year (conducted via webinar or in-person) as well as some additional tasks and meeting preparation throughout the year.

2016-2017 Schedule
- Fall: Friday, August 26, 9:00-12:00 (webinar)
- Winter: Friday, January 13, 9:00-12:00 (webinar)
- Spring: Friday, April 14, 9:00-12:00 (webinar)

Selection
To apply, please complete the following form (http://www.ode.state.or.us/wma/teachlearn/testing/resources/aesrp-panelist-information-form.pdf) and send to Cristen McLean, cristen.mclean@state.or.us by Monday, August 15, 2016.
