Anchor Standard 1: Creating-Generate and conceptualize artistic ideas and work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists rely on intuition, curiosity, and critical inquiry.

Essential Question: What happens when theatre artists use their imaginations and/or learned theatre skills while engaging in creative exploration and inquiry?

| 4th                      | 5th                         | 6th                      | 7th                        | 8th                          |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------|----------------------------|------------------------------|
| TH.1.CR1.4               | TH.1.CR1.5                  | TH.1.CR1.6               | TH.1.CR1.7                 | TH.1.CR1.8                   |
| 1. Articulate the visual | 1. Identify physical        | 1. Identify possible     | 1. Investigate multiple    | 1. Imagine and explore       |
| details of imagined      | qualities that might reveal | solutions to staging     | perspectives and solutions | multiple perspectives and    |
| worlds, and improvised   | a character's inner traits  | challenges in a          | to staging challenges in a | solutions to staging         |
| stories that support the | in the imagined world of a  | drama/theatre work.      | drama/theatre work.        | problems in a                |
| given circumstances in a | drama/theatre work.         |                          |                            | drama/theatre work.          |
| drama/theatre work.      |                             |                          |                            |                              |
| 2. Visualize and design  | 2. Propose design ideas     | 2. Identify solutions to | 2. Explain and present     | 2. Imagine and explore       |
| technical elements that  | that support the story and  | design challenges in a   | solutions to design        | solutions to design          |
| support the story and    | given circumstances in a    | drama/theatre work.      | challenges in a            | challenges of a              |
| given circumstances in a | drama/theatre work.         |                          | drama/theatre work.        | performance space in a       |
| drama/theatre work.      |                             |                          |                            | drama/theatre work.          |
| 3. Imagine how a         | 3. Imagine how a            | 3. Explore a scripted or | 3. Envision and describe a | 3. Develop a scripted or     |
| character might move to  | character's inner thoughts  | improvised character by  | scripted or improvised     | improvised character by      |
| support the story and    | impact the story and        | imagining the given      | character's inner thoughts | articulating the character's |
| given circumstances in a | given circumstances in a    | circumstances in a       | and objectives in a        | inner thoughts, objectives,  |
| drama/theatre work.      | drama/theatre work.         | drama/theatre work.      | drama/theatre work.        | and motivations in a         |
|                          |                             |                          |                            | drama/theatre work.          |

Anchor Standard 2: Creating-Organize and develop artistic ideas and work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists work to discover different ways of communicating meaning.

Essential Question: How, when, and why do theater artists' choices change?

| 4th                       | 5th                          | 6th                         | 7th                          | 8th                         |
|---------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| TH.2.CR2.4                | TH.2.CR2.5                   | TH.2.CR2.6                  | TH.2.CR2.7                   | TH.2.CR2.8                  |
| 1. Collaborate to devise  | 1. Devise original ideas for | 1. Use critical analysis to | 1. Examine and justify       | 1. Articulate and apply     |
| original ideas for a      | a drama/theatre work         | improve, refine, and        | original ideas and artistic  | critical analysis,          |
| drama/theatre work by     | that reflect collective      | evolve original ideas and   | choices in a drama/theatre   | background knowledge,       |
| asking questions about    | inquiry about characters     | artistic choices in a       | work based on critical       | research, and historical    |
| characters and plots.     | and their given              | devised or scripted         | analysis, background         | and cultural context to the |
|                           | circumstances.               | drama/theatre work.         | knowledge, and historical    | development of original     |
|                           |                              |                             | and cultural context.        | ideas for a drama/theatre   |
|                           |                              |                             |                              | work.                       |
| 2. Make and discuss group | 2. Participate in defined    | 2. Contribute ideas and     | 2. Demonstrate mutual        | 2. Share leadership and     |
| decisions and identify    | responsibilities required    | accept and incorporate the  | respect for self and others  | responsibilities to develop |
| responsibilities required | to present a                 | ideas of others in          | and their roles in preparing | collaborative goals when    |
| to present a              | drama/theatre work           | preparing or devising       | or devising drama/theatre    | preparing or devising       |
| drama/theatre work to     | informally to an audience.   | drama/theatre work.         | work.                        | drama/theatre work.         |
| peers.                    |                              |                             |                              |                             |

Anchor Standard 3: Creating-Refine and complete artistic work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists refine their work and practice their craft through rehearsal.

Essential Question: How do theatre artists transform and edit their initial ideas?

| 4th                       | 5th                       | 6th                          | 7th                          | 8th                         |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| TH.3.CR3.4                | TH.3.CR3.5                | TH.3.CR3.6                   | TH.3.CR3.7                   | TH.3.CR3.8                  |
| 1. Revise and improve an  | 1. Revise and improve an  | 1. Articulate and examine    | 1. Demonstrate focus and     | 1. Use repetition and       |
| improvised or scripted    | improvised or scripted    | choices to refine a devised  | concentration in the         | analysis in order to revise |
| drama/theatre work        | drama/theatre work        | or scripted drama/theatre    | rehearsal process to         | devised or scripted         |
| through repetition and    | through repetition and    | work.                        | analyze and refine choices   | drama/theatre work.         |
| collaborative review.     | self- review.             |                              | in a devised or scripted     |                             |
|                           |                           |                              | drama/theatre work.          |                             |
| 2. Develop physical and   | 2. Use physical and vocal | 2. Identify effective        | 2. Develop effective         | 2. Refine effective         |
| vocal exercise techniques | exploration for character | physical and vocal traits of | physical and vocal traits of | physical, vocal, and        |
| for an improvised or      | development in an         | characters in an             | characters in an             | physiological traits of     |
| scripted drama/theatre    | improvised or scripted    | improvised or scripted       | improvised or scripted       | characters in an            |
| work.                     | drama/theatre work.       | drama/theatre work.          | drama/theatre work.          | improvised or scripted      |
|                           |                           |                              |                              | drama/theatre work.         |
| 3. Collaborate on         | 3. Create innovative      | 3. Explore a planned         | 3. Consider multiple         | 3. Implement and refine a   |
| solutions to design and   | solutions to design and   | technical design during the  | planned technical design     | planned technical design    |
| technical problems that   | technical problems that   | rehearsal process for a      | elements during the          | using simple technology     |
| arise in rehearsal for a  | arise in rehearsal for a  | devised or scripted          | rehearsal process for a      | during the rehearsal        |
| drama/theatre work.       | drama/theatre work.       | drama/theatre work.          | devised or scripted          | process for devised or      |
|                           |                           |                              | drama/theatre work.          | scripted drama/ theatre     |
|                           |                           |                              |                              | work.                       |

Anchor Standard 4: Performing-Select, analyze, and interpret artistic work for presentation.Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists make strong choices to effectively convey meaning.Essential Question: Why are strong choices essential to interpreting a drama or theatre piece?

| 4th                       | 5th                        | 6th                         | 7th                         | 8th                         |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| TH.4.PR1.4                | TH.4.PR1.5                 | TH.4.PR1.6                  | TH.4.PR1.7                  | TH.4.PR1.8                  |
| 1. Modify the dialogue    | 1. Describe the underlying | 1. Identify the essential   | 1. Consider various staging | 1. Explore different pacing |
| and action to change the  | thoughts and emotions      | events in a story or script | choices to enhance the      | to better communicate       |
| story in a drama/theatre  | that create dialogue and   | that make up the dramatic   | story in a drama/theatre    | the story in a              |
| work.                     | action in a drama/theatre  | structure in a              | work.                       | drama/theatre work.         |
|                           | work.                      | drama/theatre work.         |                             |                             |
| 2. Make physical choices  | 2. Use physical choices to | 2. Experiment with various  | 2. Use various character    | 2. Use various character    |
| to develop a character in | create meaning in a        | physical choices to         | objectives in a             | objectives and tactics in a |
| a drama/theatre work.     | drama/theatre work.        | communicate character in    | drama/theatre work.         | drama/theatre work to       |
|                           |                            | a drama/theatre work.       |                             | overcome an obstacle.       |

Anchor Standard 5: Performing-Develop and refine artistic techniques and work for presentation.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists develop personal processes and skills for a performance or design.

Essential Question: What can I do to fully prepare a performance or technical design?

| 4th                        | 5th                        | 6th                         | 7th                         | 8th                        |
|----------------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| TH.5.PR2.4                 | TH.5.PR2.5                 | TH.5.PR2.6                  | TH.5.PR2.7                  | TH.5.PR2.8                 |
| 1. Practice selected       | 1. Choose acting exercises | 1. Recognize how acting     | 1. Participate in a variety | 1. Use a variety of acting |
| exercises that can be used | that can be applied to a   | exercises and techniques    | of acting exercises and     | techniques to increase     |
| in a group setting for     | drama/theatre work.        | can be applied to a         | techniques that can be      | skills in a rehearsal or   |
| drama/theatre work.        |                            | drama/theatre work.         | applied in a rehearsal or   | drama/theatre              |
|                            |                            |                             | drama/theatre               | performance.               |
|                            |                            |                             | performance.                |                            |
| 2. Propose the use of      | 2. Demonstrate the use of  | 2. Articulate how technical | 2. Choose a variety of      | 2. Use a variety of        |
| technical elements in a    | technical elements in a    | elements are integrated     | technical elements that     | technical elements to      |
| drama/theatre work.        | drama/theatre work.        | into a drama/ theatre       | can be applied to a design  | create a design for a      |
|                            |                            | work.                       | in a drama/theatre work.    | rehearsal or               |
|                            |                            |                             |                             | drama/theatre              |
|                            |                            |                             |                             | production.                |

Anchor Standard 6: Performing-Develop and refine artistic techniques and work for presentation.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists share and present stories, ideas, and envisioned worlds to explore the human experience.

Essential Question: What happens when theatre artists and audiences share a creative experience?

| 4th                      | 5th                      | 6th                         | 7th                          | 8th                    |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------|
| TH.6.PR3.4               | TH.6.PR3.5               | TH.6.PR3.6                  | TH.6.PR3.7                   | TH.6.PR3.8             |
| 1. Share small-group     | 1. Present drama/theatre | 1. Adapt a drama/theatre    | 1. Participate in rehearsals | 1. Perform a rehearsed |
| drama/theatre work, with | work informally to an    | work and present it         | for a drama/theatre work     | drama/theatre work for |
| peers as audience.       | audience.                | informally for an audience. | that will be shared with an  | an audience.           |
|                          |                          |                             | audience.                    |                        |

Anchor Standard 7: Responding-Perceive and analyze artistic work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists reflect to understand the impact of drama processes and theatre experiences.

Essential Question: How do theatre artists comprehend the essence of drama processes and theatre experiences?

| 4th                          | 5th                       | 6th                    | 7th                        | 8th                      |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------|
| TH.7.RE1.4                   | TH.7.RE1.5                | TH.7.RE1.6             | TH.7.RE1.7                 | TH.7.RE1.8               |
| 1. Identify artistic choices | 1. Explain personal       | 1. Describe and record | 1. Compare recorded        | 1. Apply criteria to the |
| made in a drama/theatre      | reactions to artistic     | personal reactions to  | personal and peer          | evaluation of artistic   |
| work through                 | choices made in a         | artistic choices in a  | reactions to artistic      | choices in a             |
| participation and            | drama/theatre work        | drama/theatre work.    | choices in a drama/theatre | drama/theatre work.      |
| observation.                 | through participation and |                        | work.                      |                          |
|                              | observation.              |                        |                            |                          |

Anchor Standard 8: Responding-Interpret intent and meaning in artistic work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists' interpretations of drama/theatre work are influenced by personal experiences and aesthetics.

Essential Question: How can the same work of art communicate different messages to different people?

| 4th                         | 5th                        | 6th                         | 7th                         | 8th                        |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| TH.8.RE2.4                  | TH.8.RE2.5                 | TH.8.RE2.6                  | TH.8.RE2.7                  | TH.8.RE2.8                 |
| 1. Compare and contrast     | 1. Justify responses based | 1. Explain how artists      | 1. Identify the artistic    | 1. Recognize and share     |
| multiple personal           | on personal experiences    | make choices based on       | choices made based on       | artistic choices when      |
| experiences when            | when participating in or   | personal experience in a    | personal experience in a    | participating in or        |
| participating in or         | observing a                | drama/theatre work.         | drama/theatre work.         | observing a drama/theatre  |
| observing a drama/theatre   | drama/theatre work.        |                             |                             | work.                      |
| work.                       |                            |                             |                             |                            |
| 2. Compare and contrast     | 2. Explain responses to    | 2. Identify cultural        | 2. Describe how cultural    | 2. Analyze how cultural    |
| the qualities of characters | characters based on        | perspectives that may       | perspectives can influence  | perspectives influence the |
| in a drama/theatre work     | cultural perspectives      | influence the evaluation of | the evaluation of           | evaluation of a            |
| through physical            | when participating in or   | a drama/theatre work.       | drama/theatre work.         | drama/theatre work.        |
| characteristics and prop    | observing drama/theatre    |                             |                             |                            |
| or costume design choices   | work.                      |                             |                             |                            |
| that reflect cultural       |                            |                             |                             |                            |
| perspectives.               |                            |                             |                             |                            |
| 3. Identify and discuss     | 3. Investigate the effects | 3. Identify personal        | 3. Interpret how the use of | 3. Apply personal          |
| physiological changes       | of emotions on posture,    | aesthetics, preferences,    | personal aesthetics,        | aesthetics, preferences,   |
| connected to emotions in    | gesture, breathing, and    | and beliefs through         | preferences, and beliefs    | and beliefs to evaluate a  |
| drama/ theatre work.        | vocal intonation in a      | participation in or         | can be used to discuss      | drama/theatre work.        |
|                             | drama/theatre work.        | observation of              | drama/theatre work.         |                            |
|                             |                            | drama/theatre work.         |                             |                            |

Anchor Standard 9: Responding-Apply criteria to evaluate artistic work.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists apply criteria to investigate, explore, and assess drama and theatre work.

Essential Question: How are the theatre artist's processes and the audience's perspectives impacted by analysis and synthesis?

| 4th                        | 5th                       | 6th                        | 7th                        | 8th                       |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|----------------------------|---------------------------|
| TH.9.RE3.4                 | TH.9.RE3.5                | TH.9.RE3.6                 | TH.9.RE3.7                 | TH.9.RE3.8                |
| 1. Propose a plan to       | 1. Develop and implement  | 1. Use supporting evidence | 1. Explain preferences,    | 1. Respond to a drama/    |
| evaluate drama/theatre     | a plan to evaluate        | and criteria to evaluate   | using supporting evidence  | theatre work using        |
| work.                      | drama/theatre work.       | drama/theatre work.        | and criteria to evaluate   | supporting evidence,      |
|                            |                           |                            | drama/theatre work.        | personal aesthetics, and  |
|                            |                           |                            |                            | artistic criteria.        |
| 2. Investigate how         | 2. Assess how technical   | 2. Apply the production    | 2. Consider the aesthetics | 2. Apply the production   |
| technical elements may     | elements represent the    | elements used in a         | of the production elements | elements used in a        |
| support a theme or idea in | theme of a drama/theatre  | drama/theatre work to      | in a drama/theatre work.   | drama/theatre work to     |
| a drama/theatre work.      | work.                     | assess aesthetic choices.  |                            | assess aesthetic choices. |
| 3. Observe how a           | 3. Recognize how a        | 3. Identify a specific     | 3. Identify how the        | 3. Assess the impact of a |
| character's choices impact | character's circumstances | audience or purpose for a  | intended purpose of a      | drama/theatre work on a   |
| an audience's perspective  | impact an audience's      | drama/theatre work.        | drama/theatre work         | specific audience.        |
| in a drama/theatre work.   | perspective in a          |                            | appeals to a specific      |                           |
|                            | drama/theatre work.       |                            | audience.                  |                           |

Anchor Standard 10: Connecting-Synthesize and relate knowledge and personal experiences to make art.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists allow awareness of interrelationships between self and others to influence and inform their work. Essential Question: What happens when theatre artists foster understanding between self and others through critical awareness, social responsibility, and the exploration of empathy?

| 4th                       | 5th                       | 6th                        | 7th                      | 8th                    |
|---------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Th.10.CO1.4               | Th.10.CO1.5               | Th.10.CO1.6                | Th.10.CO1.7              | Th.10.CO1.8            |
| 1. Identify the ways      | 1. Explain how            | 1. Explain how the actions | 1. Incorporate multiple  | 1. Examine a community |
| drama/theatre work        | drama/theatre connects    | and motivations of         | perspectives and diverse | issue through multiple |
| reflects the perspectives | oneself to a community or | characters in a            | community ideas in a     | perspectives in a      |
| of a community or         | culture.                  | drama/theatre work         | drama/theatre work.      | drama/theatre work.    |
| culture.                  |                           | impact perspectives of a   |                          |                        |
|                           |                           | community or culture.      |                          |                        |

Anchor Standard 11: Connecting-Relate artistic ideas and works with societal, cultural, and historical context to deepen understanding.

Enduring Understanding: Theatre artists critically inquire into the ways others have thought about and created drama processes and productions to inform their own work.

Essential Question: In what ways can research into theatre histories, theories, literature, and performances alter the way a drama process or production is understood?

| 4th                         | 5th                         | 6th                          | 7th                         | 8th                           |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| TH.11.CO2.4                 | TH.11.CO2.5                 | TH.11.CO2.6                  | TH.11.CO2.7                 | TH.11.CO2.8                   |
| 1. Analyze commonalities    | 1. Analyze commonalities    | 1. Research and analyze      | 1. Research and discuss     | 1. Research the story         |
| and differences between     | and differences between     | two different versions of    | how a playwright might      | elements of a staged          |
| stories set in different    | stories set in different    | the same drama/theatre       | have intended a             | drama/theatre work and        |
| cultures in preparation for | cultures in preparation for | story to determine           | drama/theatre work to be    | compare them to another       |
| a drama/theatre work.       | a drama/theatre work.       | differences and similarities | produced.                   | production of the same        |
|                             |                             | in the visual and aural      |                             | work.                         |
|                             |                             | world of each story.         |                             |                               |
| 2. Compare the              | 2. Identify historical      | 2. Investigate the time      | 2. Examine artifacts from a | 2. Identify and use artifacts |
| drama/theatre conventions   | sources that explain        | period and place of a        | time period and geographic  | from a time period and        |
| of a given time period with | drama/theatre terminology   | drama/theatre work to        | location to better          | place to develop              |
| those of the present.       | and conventions.            | better understand            | understand performance      | performance and design        |
|                             |                             | performance and design       | and design choices in a     | choices in a drama/theatre    |
|                             |                             | choices.                     | drama/theatre work.         | work.                         |