OREGON DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Oregon achieves . . . together!

BUILD YOUR FOUNDATION FOR SCHOOL SAFETY

OREGON School Safety and Emergency Management

SSEM RECOMMENDED FREE ONLINE TRAINING

INCIDENT COMMAND SYSTEM (ICS)

IS-100.C: Introduction to ICS
Learn the foundational organizational system used to coordinate any emergency response.

IS-200.C: Basic ICS for Initial Response
Master the critical first steps of managing a school incident before external help arrives.

MULTI HAZARD PLANNING

IS-362.A: Multi Hazard Planning for schools
Learn how to build, update, and successfully activate your school's Emergency Operations Plan (EOP).

IS-360: Mass Casualty Incident Prep
Get practical, actionable strategies to prepare for and respond to high-severity active threats.

ADDITIONAL SSEM RESOURCES

- District support - contact the SSEM team at ODE
- Resources for developing EOP's
- Training & technical assistance

NATIONAL INCIDENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (NIMS)

IS-700: NIMS Introduction
Learn the standardized, nation-wide guidelines that help local, state, and federal teams coordinate together during a crisis.

NATIONAL RESPONSE FRAMEWORK

IS-800: National Response Framework, An Introduction
Understand how the National Response Framework coordinates federal, state, and local resources to execute a unified emergency response.

FEMA

HOW TO GET STARTED

https://training.fema.gov/ndemu/start/

- Visit the FEMA website above, click "Register for a FEMA SID," and complete the online form with your personal details.
- Choose your course and sign up with your SID (Student ID number)
- Take the exam and receive your certificate