Abbreviated School Day Programs: Which training(s) should I attend?

ASDP Update for Charter School Staff

● Recommended for charter school staff

Working at a charter school? Get the latest on Abbreviated School Day Programs (ASDP)! This session will walk through important legislative updates, review key ASDP concepts and requirements, and share helpful flowcharts your team can use to support decision-making.

ASDP Essentials, Part 1

● Recommended for newcomers

New to Abbreviated School Day Programs (ASDP) or just want more practice? Join us for a hands-on session where we'll walk through the basics of ASDP using a real-life case study. This session is designed for anyone working in schools or districts who's new to the process—or just wants a refresher. In Part 1, we'll cover the foundations. Then in Part 2, we'll dig deeper into the details, including new laws that have been added since Senate Bill 819 passed in 2023.

ASDP Refresher: What's new for 2025 -2026

● Recommended for returning staff

If you've been working with ASDP for a while, this refresher session is for you. We'll cover what's new from the 2025 legislative session, revisit key ASDP concepts and requirements, and share lessons learned from the past two years of implementation.

ASDP Essentials, Part 2

● Recommended for newcomers

This follow-up ASDP Essentials, Part 1 is perfect for school and district staff who are new to ASDP—or anyone who wants more hands-on practice. We'll use real-world examples to explain key details like exemptions, exceptions, and the latest changes to the law since Senate Bill 819 passed in 2023.

ASDP Data Collection Training

● Recommended for data submitters

This session will prepare you to enter required student information into the ASDP data application system. We will demonstrate how to utilize the application, and we'll leave time at the end to answer your questions. This session will not include programmatic implementation information.

Conducting Compliant ASDP Meetings

● Recommended for everyone

Our newly revised sample forms will help you ensure ASDP meetings comply with state requirements, promote meaningful parent participation and decision making, and support families in understanding their rights!

ASDP Updates and Overview for Section 504 Coordinators and Case Managers

● Recommended for everyone

Learn what's new with ASDP—including 504-specific examples. This session will cover recent legislative updates and review key concepts and requirements for Abbreviated School Day Programs. We'll also look at real-life 504 scenarios to help connect the dots.

Exemptions and Exceptions Microlearning

● Recommended for everyone

Are you confused as to which students have an exemption or exception to Abbreviated School Day Programs? Attend this session to gain clarity.

Data Collection Reminders & Tips

● Recommended for everyone

Need a quick refresher on submitting ASDP data? This session offers helpful tips and reminders for entering information into the ASDP data application system accurately. It's not a deep dive like the detailed training from the data team—instead, it's a big-picture overview with time for your questions.
