

Specific Competency

- 1.1 Knowledge of content and range within child development domains: receptive/expressive language, social, fine and gross motor, cognitive and self-help.

Competency Areas consist of 6 to 8 specific core competencies. The Criteria for passing a specific Competency Area varies based on both the Authorization being applied for and the number of competencies within the area. In general, applicants applying for the Supervisor or Specialist Authorization must pass 6 of the 8 areas.

Specialist
Competency Area	Criteria for Passing Area
1. Typical and Atypical Child Development	5 of 6
2. Assessment	6 of 7
3. Family	6 of 8
4. Service Delivery	10 of 12
5. Program Management	3 of 4
6. Service Coordination	5 of 6
7. Research	1 of 2
8. Professional Development, Values and Ethics	4 of 5