

Attendance Learning Series Special Edition: Front Office Staff as Climate and Culture Leaders

Join Every Day Matters and Clackamas Education Service District for a session focused on approaches school front office staff can take to address absenteeism and tardiness.

The session will look at strategies used by schools around the state and nation that have promoted a safer, more positive, and engaging environment that led to stronger outcomes for students and a stronger relationship between staff and families.

Who should attend?

- School front office staff
- District and school administrators
- Attendance Teams
- Anyone interested in whole-school collaboration to support attendance

Thursday, September 24th

3:35-4:30 pm

Virtual via Zoom

Share with any team members you work with!

This session is part of the Every Day Matters' monthly Attendance Learning Series.

Register here.