

Diversity Among Oregon Tribes – Answer Key

Category	Lower Columbia	Coast	Inland Valleys	Klamath Lakes	Plateau	Great Basin
Tribes	Chinooks (Bands mentioned: Clatsop, Cathlamet, Skilloot, Wasco Wishram)	Tillamook, Siletz, Yaquina, Alsea, Siuslaw, Lower Umpqua, Hanis Coos, Miluk Coos Not Mentioned: Kwatami, Tututni, Chetco, Tolowa	Kalapuyan, Molalla, Clatskanie, Upper Umpqua (Cow Creek), Upper Coquille, Shasta Costa, Takelma, Latgawa, Galice Creek, Applegate Creek, Shasta	Klamath, Modoc (Achomawi)	Nez Perce, Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla-Walla, Warm Springs	Paiute (Bands mentioned: Wadadika)
Major Food Resources	Salmon/fishing Roots Plants	Salmon Seafood Game (hunting) Berries	Some Salmon Nuts Roots Hunting Berries	Edible plants Waterfowl Fish Berries Hunting	Fishing Roots Hunting	Some fishing Waterfowl Roots Seed plants
Population Density	The most densely populated area in Oregon 400 people/sq. mi.	Heavily populated 150 people/sq. mi.	Low population 50 people/sq. mi.	Low population 10 people/sq. mi.	Low population 10 people/sq. mi.	Low population 5 people/sq. mi.
Major Land Features	The most densely populated area in Oregon 400 people/sq. mi.	Heavily populated 150 people/sq. mi.	Low population 50 people/sq. mi.	Low population 10 people/sq. mi.	Low population 10 people/sq. mi.	Low population 5 people/sq. mi.
Method of Long Distance Travel	Long-prowed canoes	Canoes	Foot travel Canoes	Shovel-nose canoes	Foot Canoe Horses after 1730	Foot Horses after mid-1800s
Winter Dwelling	Plank houses	Plank houses	Plank houses Brush houses	Earth-covered lodges	Mat longhouses	Willow-frame houses

Diversity Among Oregon Tribes – Notes Sheet (Form A)

Tribes:

Category
Tribes
Major Food Resources
Population Density
Major Land Features
Method of Long Distance Travel
Winter Dwelling

Sovereignty Poster Rubric

	1	2	3	4
Essential question	The question is not answered.	The question is answered, but the explanation is unclear.	The question may have multiple answers, but the explanations are unclear.	The question is answered with very clear explanation(s).
Defines some key vocabulary	Vocabulary terms are listed.	Vocabulary terms are listed but may not be clearly defined.	Defines three key vocabulary terms.	Clearly defines the terms "sovereignty," "since time immemorial," "tribal nations," and "rights."
Video clip information	Lists video clip watched.	Lists video clip and how it relates to tribal sovereignty.	Lists video clip, its relation to tribal sovereignty, and a supporting fact.	Lists video clip, its relation to tribal sovereignty and two supporting facts.
Reading connection	There is no connection to the reading.	There is little connection to the reading.	There is some connection to the reading.	The connection to the reading is very clear.
Pictures	Sketches do not relate to tribal sovereignty.	Sketches are somewhat related to tribal sovereignty.	Sketches or pictures relate clearly to tribal sovereignty.	The picture clearly relates to the importance of tribal sovereignty and rights.

Your Reflection

I supported the team's poster by:

My favorite part of this poster is: