

Native Americans in Oregon: By the Numbers

Name of federally recognized tribe	Number of tribal members	Number of people employed by the tribe	Land size of the tribal reservation (approximate)	Restoration date (Date federal recognition was restored)
Burns Paiute of Harney County	410	54	13,736 acres	October 13, 1972
Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua and Siuslaw Indians	1,198	575	415 acres	October 17, 1984
Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde	5,306	1,600	11,288 acres	November 22, 1983
Confederated Tribes of Siletz	5,080	1,121	15,265 acres	November 18, 1977
Confederated Tribes of Umatilla Reservation	2,965		172,000 acres	Treaty year: 1855
Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs	5,292	700	644,000 acres	Treaty date: June 25, 1855
Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Indians	1,760	1,100	1,840 acres	Treaty date: September 19, 1853
Coquille Indian Tribe	1,100	634	7,043 acres	June 28, 1989
Klamath Tribes	5,200	350	No reservation land	August 27, 1986