As we lead this effort across Oregon, the Distance Learning for All Guiding Principles will anchor our state in common values and help generate collective action during this time:

- Ensure safety and wellness. Students need food, clothing, a safe place to learn and shelter, as well as a sense of care and connection, in order to engage in challenging intellectual work.
- Cultivate connection and relationship. Student connections and relationships with trusted adults promote belonging, which is especially important as learning takes place outside of the school setting.
- Center in equity and efficacy. Prioritize equity in every decision; build on cultural and linguistic assets to inspire learning and promote student efficacy. Consider how decisions and actions attend to racial equity and social justice (Oregon Educator Equity Lens). Consider the assets of students who experience disability.
- Innovate. Iterate through complex change with a spirit of possibility, centering in deep learning, student agency, and culturally sustaining practices.

| Identify district learning platforms, curriculum and existing print materials already in place for teachers to utilize to support instruction |
Tool #3: District Distance Learning Planning Tool

- Identify teacher leaders in curriculum and technology integration, including those who work with specialized populations, to lead professional learning and to serve on planning teams
- Identify resources that can be used in new ways, such as using school buses to deliver instructional materials
- Identify critical barriers and problem solve, creatively leveraging social and human capital
- Review and update applicable district policies and privacy policies dictating communication between staff and students and distribution of district materials (i.e. Chromebooks, etc.)
- Review Survey Results and Apply to Plan
- Connect with similarly-resourced districts to create support networks (e.g., through ESD Partners or by contacting colleagues) and to share and co-create resources.

Key Focus: Communicate
- Send initial communication to families and staff before the end of week one. Anchor in care and connection. Share any local celebrations and gratitude (i.e. celebrate food service plans and meal providers), provide the information that you know now and provide a general timeline.
  - Use as many modes as possible for communication (hard-copy letters, social media, robocalls, translated for families as needed).

Stage 2: Week One through Week Three

- Continue and complete any tasks for Week 1

Communication To Students, Families and Community

- Create professional learning opportunities for staff
- Design schedules and consider flexible staffing needs
- Develop building-level plans to reach specialized populations including students experiencing homelessness, students of color and Alaskan Native/American Indian students, emerging bilingual students, students of migrant and farmworker families, students experiencing disability, students in foster care, and students navigating poverty
- Review staff survey results in order to establish best communication methods for staff: consider daily or frequent messaging to staff from administration, provide talking points and scripts to educators
- Identify and establish partnerships to promote Distance Learning for All
Tool #3: District Distance Learning Planning Tool

- Consider setting up a tech support desk for parent/student access
- Educators review Oregon Open Learning and Distance Learning for All: Family and Educator Resources and plan for launching Distance Learning for All.

Key Focus: Communicate

To Schools and Staff
- District administration communicates vision, clarifies expectations, and establishes timelines
  - Start with Student Connection - Include a timeline for each school to plan for students to receive at least one contact from school staff (email class-wide message, phone calls, mail, etc.)
  - Schedule and hold building-level or cross-district grade level/content area small group meetings with elementary, middle, and high school leaders - do these as virtual meetings or conference calls to ensure social distancing practices
  - School administrators hold virtual staff meeting: assign notetaker to send notes to staff for those who may not be able to attend
  - Connect with staff: encourage staff connectivity, support, and care
  - Share district messaging and expectations for staff
  - Share schedule and resources for professional learning and online tutorials
  - Encourage Professional Learning Communities and Learning Networks
  - Leverage provided resources - ODE COVID-19 webpage, ODE’s Distance Learning for All: Family and Educator Resources, and Oregon Open Learning (OER)

To School Communities and Students/Families
- School building administrators share information with their school communities that includes key district messages as well as school-specific guidance such as the school plan, where to pick up meals, when to expect communication from teachers, how students can pick up or access materials/technology, and how to set up for connectivity
- Share timelines and next steps (phases); Share that communication will be coming out in phases/stages - ask for patience and feedback
- If available - include distribution of materials plan (devices, hot spots, packets, materials)
- Share guidance for at-home learning schedules (see ODE Tool #5 for Instructional Time)
- Provide updates and guidance for seniors (high schools)
- Include ways for all families to contact district/school with questions/concerns
- Share tutorials for any online learning platforms that will be used to access district curriculum and teacher connection

  - Learning goals
  - Course expectations
  - Timelines
