Spruce Run Creek Trail

The Spruce Run Creek Trailhead is located at the popular Henry Rierson Spruce Run Campground. This nearly three mile trail offers a moderate to difficult climb as it traverses up and over some Coast Range ridges and hikers make their way to the final destination; Spruce Run Lake.

Lost Lake Trail

Lost Lake is a 14-acre natural forest lake nestled in the Coast Range Mountains. The Lake can be accessed from Lost Lake Road near the entrance to Henry Rierson Spruce Run Campground and from Quartz Creek Forest Road off Highway 26 at Milepost 27. Lost Lake is periodically stocked with trout by the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife. The day use area features a boat ramp for non-motorized use, a picnic area, and a vault toilet.

Bloom Lake Trail

The Bloom Lake trailhead is accessed from Highway 26 at Milepost 24.5. The trail to the lake is 1.25 miles from the highway. This tranquil lake offers an ideal destination after a relaxing afternoon hike through the forest. The trail is a moderate climb that can be enjoyed by the whole family. Along the way experience a variety of plants and animals found in coastal forests.

Be Prepared

- Let someone know your plans
- Lock your vehicle
- Read trailhead signs
- Pack plenty of water

Protect the Forest

- Stay on designated trails
- Share the trail
- Pack it in, pack it out
- Check current fire condition

Drive Safely

Always use caution when driving on single-lane gravel roads in the forest. Drive slowly and watch for log and dump truck traffic. Remember, the Clatsop is a working forest. And always be prepared for changing trail and weather conditions, steep terrain and loose rock.
