

BEFORE THE BOARD OF FORESTRY
STATE OF OREGON

IN THE MATTER OF:

BRAD REESER,

Respondent.

FINAL ORDER

OAH Case No. 2018-ABC-01648

Agency Case No. 16-CN029

The Board of Forestry, at a meeting in Salem on November 7, 2018, by consensus affirms the Notice of Civil Penalty regarding Citation 16-CN029 issued by Joe Arbow, Stewardship Forester at the time of the violation, and adopts and incorporates by reference the attached proposed order issued by Administrative Law Judge Samantha A. Fair, on August 22, 2018. Neither party submitted exceptions to the proposed final order; hence, none were considered by the Board.

Dated this ____ day of November, 2018

State Forester and
Secretary to the Board of Forestry

RIGHT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW

If you are dissatisfied with the Order, you may not appeal it until you have asked the agency to rehear the case or reconsider the Order. To obtain agency rehearing or reconsideration, you must file a petition for rehearing or reconsideration pursuant to OAR 137-003-0675 within 60 days from the day this Order was served on you. If this Order was personally delivered to you, the date of service is the day you received the Order. If this Order was mailed to you, the date of service is the day it was mailed, not the day you received it. If you do not file a petition for rehearing or reconsideration within the time limits provided, you will lose your opportunity for rehearing or reconsideration and you will lose your right to appeal to the Oregon Court of Appeals. (OAR 629-001-0050).

If, after you have filed a petition for rehearing or reconsideration, the agency issues an Order you are dissatisfied with, you have the right to appeal that Order to the Oregon Court of Appeals pursuant to ORS 183.482.

If, 60 days after you have filed a petition for rehearing or reconsideration, the agency has not issued an order, your petition will be considered denied and at that time you will have the right to appeal the original Order to the Court of Appeals pursuant to ORS 183.480 and ORS 183.482. To appeal, you must file a petition for judicial review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the day that your petition is deemed denied. If you do not file a petition for judicial review within the 60-day time period, you will lose your right to appeal.
