

Submitted: 01/01/2019 8:28 AM

I live near those Siskyou forests.

Please do all you can to help the Marbled Murrelets and the fish streams. Making logging roads through old growth disturbs the old growth forest and should not be allowed.

Selective cutting in the national forests- we like that. It prevents fires from easily crowning. Controlled burns are the way to go.

Melissa Bishop
melissabishop@live.com