

629-025-0005 (6)

- Clarification of the definition of a day use area

629-025-0030

- Changes to fees for vehicle sites and walk-in sites
- Increase number of vehicles allowed to be parked at sites before an additional fee is charged
- Establishment of a parking fee for parking in designated parking areas

629-025-0035

- New rule to address Veteran's Special Access Pass and the Active Duty Military fee waiver

629-025-0040

- Reduction of time period allowed for unattended personal property prior to removal
- Clarification that the Forester may establish stay limits that are different from the general stay limits established by rule (i.e. the Forester may grant permission for longer stays and also may establish shorter stay limits for certain locations)
- Reduction of stay limit to 14 days out of any 35 day period
- Reduction of annual stay limit to 42 days from 60 days, and changed to reflect consecutive 12 month period rather than calendar year
- New restriction on the types of animals that a person may bring onto State Forest lands
- Reduction of time period required for towing of an unattended vehicle
- New restriction regarding shooting into streams, waterfalls, ponds, and other bodies of water
- Clarification on the restriction on excessive noise; moved restriction from Designated Recreation Areas to General Forest Recreation rule

629-025-0050

- Change to the stay limit to make it consistent with stay limits outside of Designated Recreation Areas
- Moved excessive noise restriction to General Forest Recreation rule

629-025-0060

- Clarification that camp sites may only be occupied by 2 tents
- Addition of restriction on the use of power equipment in Campgrounds and Day Use Areas

629-025-0080

- Reduction of time period required for removal of abandoned property