

Urban & Community Forestry (UCF) Program Menu of Services

Technical Assistance

Providing support and guidance in the following areas:

- Arboriculture best management practices
- Urban forestry management plans
- Urban forestry advisory board establishment
- Tree codes and ordinances
- Tree inventories
- Tree canopy assessments
- Tree species selection and planting lists
- Tree pest/pathogen identification, preparedness, and management
- Tree and wildfire risk reduction
- Wood and biomass utilization

Educational Services

- Delivering presentations and webinars
- Leading hands-on workshops and trainings
- Coordinating conferences and symposiums
- Participating in interviews
- Tabling

Financial Assistance

- Funding local governments, nonprofits, Tribes, and other partner organizations to support UCF Program initiatives — see UCF Subaward Program webpage for additional information
- Supporting UCF partners with securing funding opportunities
- Providing access to free tree inventory and canopy assessment software

Communication & Coordination Services

- Administering Arbor Day Foundation recognition programs (Tree City USA, Tree Campus, Tree Line USA)
- Supporting Arbor Day celebrations across Oregon
- Collaborating with the US Forest Service to bolster UCF initiatives in Oregon
- Connecting partners to strengthen Oregon's UCF network
- Authoring and updating publications/resources (e.g., outreach materials, newsletter, journal articles, and web-based tools)