Notice to federal immigration officers

In Oregon, state and local government, including police, are not allowed to help federal authorities enforce immigration law unless required by a court order.

- It is against Oregon law to provide federal immigration authorities with personal information about individuals receiving services from this agency for the purpose of immigration enforcement without a court order
- Federal immigration authorities are not permitted to enter non-public areas without a judicial warrant signed by a court authorizing access
- All court orders, warrants, subpoenas or other documents must be reviewed by designated staff before any response
- Individual employees cannot grant exceptions
