Fast Facts for FFY 2018

Child Protective Services

- During Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2018 (October 2017-September 2018), a total of 84,233 reports of abuse were received.¹
- A total of 43,317 of received reports were assigned for CPS assessment.² A total of 36,460 CPS assessments were completed, which includes reports that were assigned in the previous year.³
- Of all completed CPS assessments, 8,167 were founded for abuse and involved 12,585 victims. Of those victims, 2,906 (23.1%) were removed from their homes.
- Of all victims, 46.3 percent were younger than 6 years old.
- Of all types of abuse incidences, neglect was the most frequently identified type of abuse (43.4 percent), followed by threat of harm (39.9 percent).
- At 42.5 percent, alcohol and drug use represented the most common family stress factor when child abuse was present.
- The next most common stressors were domestic violence (29.7 percent) and parent/caregiver involvement with law enforcement agencies (19.9 percent).

In-Home Family Services

- During FFY 2018, a total of 7,645 children received case management and safety services while being served in their homes.
- Of the total served in-home, 40.2 percent received additional services.

¹ This number reflects all potential reports of child abuse that are screened by DHS (Child Welfare and the Office of Training, Investigation and Safety) and includes a variety of notifications.

² All references to assigned CPS assessments also include child abuse reports assigned by Office of Training, Investigation and Safety (OTIS) for investigation.

³ Reports assigned for CPS assessment can be combined with a currently open CPS assessment, changing the count of CPS assessments. Further, when this combination happens, it can impact the time period in which the now-linked report shows up in.

Foster Care

Total Served

- A total of 11,445 children spent at least one day in some kind of foster care such as family foster care, professional treatment programs, psychiatric residential treatment, pre-adoptive placements, developmental disability placements, and independent living.
- Of the total children served in foster care, 67.3% were White, 16.2% were Hispanic, 5.8% were Black or African American, 4.8% were American Indian or Alaska Native, 4.5% did not have race recorded, and 1.4% were Asian or Pacific Islander.⁴
- A total of 1,351 youth received independent living program services.
- Of all children leaving foster care, 59.7 percent were reunited with their families.

Average Daily Population

- An average of 7,949 children were in foster care on a daily basis. Of these:
 - An average of 5,820 children were in family foster care. Of those, 49.6 percent (about 2,888 children) were placed with relatives.
 - An average of 813 children were on trial home visit.
 - An average of 314 children and young adults were served in treatment foster care through Child Welfare Behavioral Rehabilitation Services programs or Oregon Health Authority psychiatric treatment settings.
 - The remaining 1,002 children were in other types of foster care placements such as developmental disability placements, pre-adoptive placements, and independent living.

Point in Time

- Of the 7,672 children in care on September 30, 2018, 60 percent (4,605) had two or fewer placements.

Adoption & Guardianship Program

- A total of 666 children had adoptions finalized, with 21.5 percent (143 children) representing racial/ethnic groups.
- A total of 306 out of 324 children (94.4 percent) who were adopted, and had siblings, were adopted by the same family as one or more of their siblings.
- A total of 454 children exited foster care to a guardianship.

⁴ Race categories are defined in compliance with REAL-D (OAR 943-070-0010) and U.S. Census Bureau standards and are gathered through self-identification. Children may have multiple races. The primary race is the first one identified. If a child self-identifies as Hispanic in addition to other races, their race category will be Hispanic (any race).

Abuse Reports and Reporters of Child Abuse

During FFY 2018, Child Welfare received 84,233 reports of child abuse, an increase of 4.4 percent from the prior year.

During FFY 2018:

- Public and private officials required by law to report suspected child abuse made up 79.8 percent of the reports of abuse received by Child Welfare.
- Of all reports, 38.7 percent came from schools and law enforcement agencies.

Response Time for CPS Assessments

The response time for a CPS worker to make contact is determined by the information collected from the reporter about child safety. There are two types of response times; within 24 hours and within 5 days. Nearly 90 percent (89.1) were assigned a response time of within 24 hours.

Reports Assigned for CPS Assessments

Of the 84,233 reports of abuse received, 43,317 were assigned for CPS assessment.

During the year, 36,460 CPS assessments were completed. Of this total, 8,167 (22.4 percent) resulted in a founded disposition. The 8,167 CPS assessments with founded dispositions represent 9.7 percent of the total abuse reports. Once there is a founded disposition, the children for whom there is reasonable cause to believe they were abused are considered victims of child abuse.

Victims of Abuse

During FFY 2018, there were 12,585 unduplicated child abuse victims. Most child victims remained in their own homes (76.9 percent), while 23.1 percent of child victims were removed from their homes. This is an increase of 8% over FFY 2017.

Of the total victims, 13.5 percent remained home with an in-home safety plan and 63.4 percent remained in their homes, but Child Welfare determined that it was not necessary to open a case to keep the child(ren) safe.

The following data show the key demographics of children who were victims of child abuse during FFY 2018.

Types of Abuse Incidents

Each type of abuse experienced by a victim in a founded CPS assessment counts as an incident of child abuse. The number of incidents is larger than the number of victims because victims may have suffered more than one type of abuse or may have been involved in more than one founded CPS assessment. Between FFY 2017 and FFY 2018, the total number of incidents of child abuse increased by 12.5 percent.

Neglect is the largest category of child abuse at 43.4 percent, followed by threat of harm, at 39.9 percent of all incidents of abuse.

While most types of abuse increased from the previous year, mental injury and physical abuse increased the most with mental injury increasing by 50.6% and physical abuse increasing by 29.9%.

People Identified as Responsible for Abuse

People identified as responsible for child abuse, commonly referred to as perpetrators, are most often family members, making up 93.4 percent. Of family members, mothers and fathers represent 76.1 percent.

Family Stress Factors

Leading family stress factors of abused children are alcohol and/or drug use, domestic violence, and parental involvement with law enforcement. Many families also have significant financial stress or unemployment issues. Some parents may have mental illness or were abused as children. There usually are several stress factors in families of child abuse victims.

Fatalities Related to Child Abuse

There were 26 children who died from causes related to abuse during FFY 2018. Two of the 26 children were siblings who died as a result of the same incident of abuse.

- There were 24 fatalities (23 incidents) with at least one parent as the identified person responsible. The relationships of the person responsible to the child in all 26 fatalities were:
 - The mother alone in 10 fatalities.
 - The father alone in 3 fatalities.
 - The mother and father in 7 fatalities.
 - The mother's boyfriend in 1 fatality.
 - The mother and the mother's live-in boyfriend in 2 fatalities.
 - The mother, father, and relative in 1 fatality.
 - A licensed child care provider in 1 fatality.
 - An ODDS licensed group home employee in 1 fatality.

- There were 21 victims (80.8 percent) that were age 5 and younger, demonstrating the vulnerability of this age group. Fourteen victims were younger than one year old.
- No children had an open Child Welfare case at the time of the fatality.⁵
- Three children had an open CPS assessment at the time of the fatality.
- No children were in DHS custody at the time of death.
- Seven children's families received family preservation services in the five years preceding the fatality.
- Twenty fatalities were the result of neglect. Four fatalities were caused by physical abuse. Two fatalities were caused by both physical abuse and neglect.

⁵ An open case refers to a family's case assigned to a caseworker after completion of a CPS assessment to manage child safety and provide services.

In-Home Family Services

Preserving Families

In situations when a child is determined to be unsafe and the parent/caregiver is not able to manage the child's safety without the assistance of Child Welfare, then safety plans are developed. If it is possible to manage the child's safety in the home, an in-home safety plan is developed with the child's family. This is referred to as an in-home case.

A total of 1,387 children were being served in their homes on September 30, 2018. The following data show the key demographics of children being served at home on September 30, 2018 as well as the disproportionality index.

Over the course of the year (FFY 2018), a total of 7,645 children were served in their homes. All children served in-home receive case management and safety services. Over 3,000 children (3,076 or 40.2 percent) also received additional services.

Services offered primarily fall within two categories: In-Home Safety and Reunification Services (ISRS) and Strengthening, Preserving and Reunifying Families (SPRF) Program Services.

In-Home Safety and Reunification Services (ISRS) are services designed to provide for the immediate safety of children at risk of abuse by managing the safety threats within the family to prevent removal; or when children have been placed in protective custody, to help them return home with in-home safety services.

ISRS provides a combination of concrete safety and change services that lead to improved parent protective capacity. Services are designed to protect children, stabilize the family, and assist parents in establishing linkages to formal, informal, and natural supports and resources so that a child can remain safely with their family without more intrusive intervention of Child Welfare.

SPRF services were created by the Oregon legislature in June 2011 (ORS 418.575-418.598). This was to specifically address the needs of children and families who come to the attention of Child Welfare through a report of abuse. These services are designed to support a comprehensive service array in local communities.

The overall goals of the SPRF Program are to maintain children safely at home with their parents or caregivers, safely and equitably reduce the number of children in the foster care system, reduce child trauma, reduce the length of stay in foster care, and to reduce reentry rates of children into the Child Welfare system. Services provided are culturally-competent, trauma informed, client-centered, and family-focused.

Each county in the state has implemented the SPRF program and has developed their individualized service array through a process to identify the services gaps and needs in their community. Some of the themes in the gaps and needs identified across the state are: Navigators, Parent Training, Parent Mentoring, Relief Nursery services, Alcohol and Drug Treatment, Housing, Front End Intervention, Reconnecting Families, Trauma and Therapeutic Services, Family Visitation, Transportation Services and Employment Related Services.

If a child's safety cannot be managed safely at home, they are placed in foster care and the family receives services (including ISRS, SPRF, and other services) to assist them in making changes that will allow their child to safely return home.

Foster Care

Children in foster care range in age from birth to 21 years old. They come from various types of racial/ethnic backgrounds, different cultures, and family types. They have their own unique personalities, abilities, interests and potential.

Children are placed in foster care for different reasons. Sometimes their families cannot provide them with the basic safety and protection they need. Many have also faced difficult experiences including parental substance abuse, sexual or physical abuse, and abandonment.

Entering Foster Care

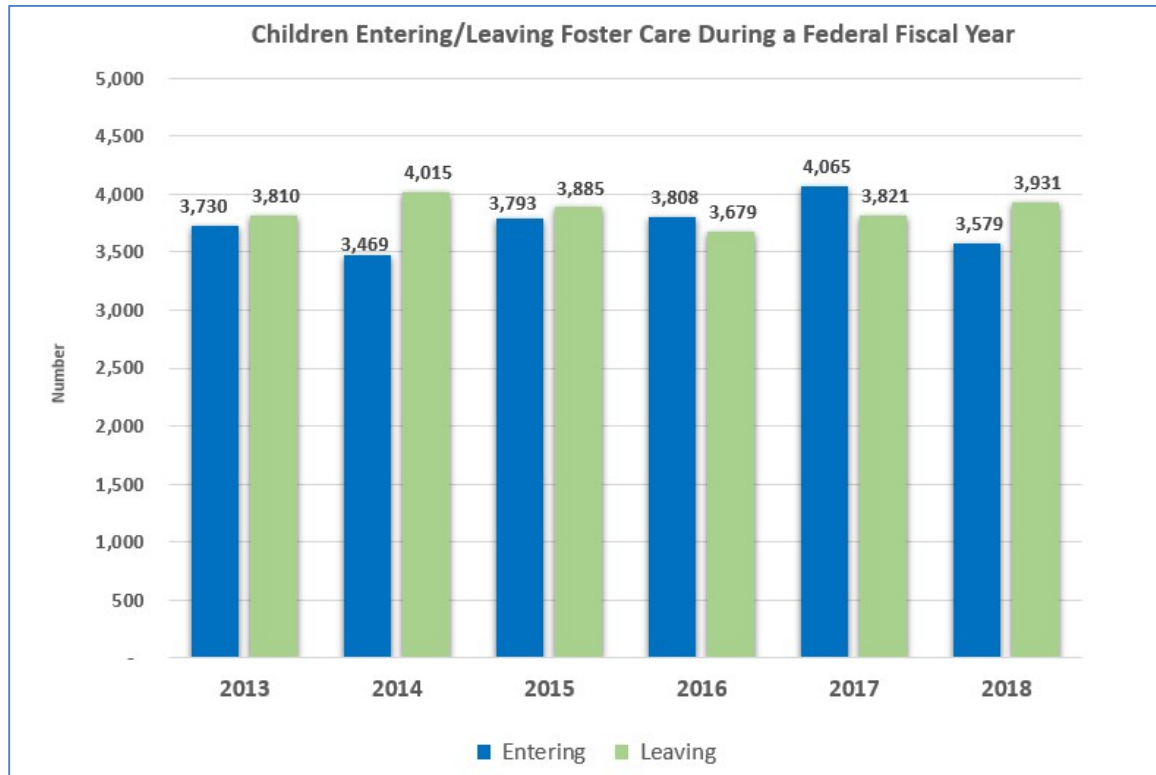

Children who cannot remain safely at home enter foster care for various reasons. These children most often enter foster care as a result of their parents' actions and not as a result of the child's behavior. Of all children who entered foster care during FFY 2018, just over fourteen percent (14.3) had four or more reasons for removal from their homes.

The number of children in foster care on September 30, 2018 (7,672) decreased by 4 percent from the number of children in foster care on September 30, 2017.

A total of 491 children (or 13.3 percent of all exits) left foster care and custody within three months of entry. The median length of time in care for a child who exits is 17.9 months, slightly lower than the median of 18.6 months in FFY 2017. For children who reunify with parents, this includes up to six months on a trial home visit.

In 1978, Congress enacted the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) in response to a national crisis in which an alarmingly high percentage of Native American children were being removed from their families and tribal communities. ICWA requires that states make Active Efforts to prevent removal of tribal children from their families. Oregon works closely with the federally recognized tribes to ensure ICWA works closely with the federally recognized tribes to ensure ICWA compliance and tribes are actively involved in the decision-making process for their children. A total of 587 children served in foster care were ICWA eligible in FFY 2018.

Children in Foster Care—Point-In-Time

Family and Sibling Connections

DHS helps maintain connections for children placed in foster care by working to place them in their home communities, with relatives, and by placing siblings together in out-of-home care.

There were 7,672 children in foster care as of September 30, 2018. At that time, 5,490 were in family foster care (a family-home setting). Of those in family foster care, 31.9% (2,450 children) were with relatives. The other settings for children in foster care include those in residential treatment, trial home visits and pre-adoptive settings.

As of the last day of FFY 2018, there were 3,855 children in out-of-home foster care who were part of a sibling group. Of these children, 3,175 (82.4 percent) were placed with the same family as one or more of their siblings. The percent of children with siblings being placed with siblings is slightly lower than those in care a year earlier, when 82.9 percent of children were placed with siblings.

Stability While in Foster Care

For children in care as of September 30, 2018, a total of 60 percent had two or fewer placements. This is a decrease from 2017 where 62.3 percent of children had two or fewer placements.

Behavioral Rehabilitation Services

Behavioral Rehabilitation Services (BRS) is a higher level of care that provides the skill development necessary for children with debilitating emotional and behavioral challenges to return home or move to a less intensive level of care and to ultimately achieve permanence.

More than 266 children in care per day receive these important services, including behavioral intervention, counseling and skill-building services in professional assessment and stabilization facilities, therapeutic foster care, and residential placement models. These service programs are administered through contracts with licensed, private child-caring agencies.

On any given day during FFY 2018, BRS served the following:

- 102 children in professional treatment foster homes, and
- 163 children in residential treatment facilities.

Psychiatric Residential Treatment

Children in the state's custody whose mental health needs exceed or differ from the level or type of services provided by the BRS system may be served within the mental health services system in psychiatric residential placements or other mental health supported placements which are contracted through the Oregon Health Authority and authorized and paid for through Oregon's Coordinated Care Organizations.

On any given day, 48 children in care are served in psychiatric residential treatment settings.

Youth in Foster Care

Oregon Revised Statutes allow for children to remain in out-of-home care placement beyond the age of 18, and with a court order up to age 21.

During FFY 2018:

- Teens (13 years and older) comprised 27.1 percent of the foster care population.
- A total of 3,102 teens spent at least one day in foster care.
- Teens exiting foster care were reunited with their families 46.3 percent of the time.
- A total of 227 current and former foster care youth received scholarships for higher education for the 2017-2018 school year through a federal grant awarded to DHS and implemented with the assistance of the Office of Student Access and Completion.

Independent Living Programs

Youth in foster care are eligible for Independent Living Program (ILP) services. ILP services are provided by 16 contracted community-based partners throughout the state. The number of youths receiving paid ILP services decreased by less than half a percent (0.4) from 1,357 in FFY 2017 to 1,351 in FFY 2018.

ILP services help youths in foster care:

- Make the transition to self-sufficiency as adults;
- Receive the education, training and services necessary to obtain employment;
- Attain academic and/or vocational education and prepare for post-secondary training and education; and
- Obtain personal and emotional support and promote healthy interactions with dedicated adults.

Exiting foster care

Most children leaving foster care are reunified with their parents. But for other children, a plan to reunify them with their parents does not occur for many reasons. These children who exit foster care may move on to various other living arrangements and permanent plans, such as adoption, guardianship or permanent relative care.

During FFY 2018, a total of 59.7 percent of children who left foster care were reunified with their families. If a child cannot safely return home, the law requires that an alternative permanency plan quickly be put into place.

The following data show the child's first recorded race/ethnicity as well as the disproportionality index for children exiting foster care during FFY 2018.

Disproportionality Index (DI) is calculated by taking the percent by race for children exiting foster care and dividing it by the percent by race in Oregon's child population. Values less than 1 mean underrepresentation. Disproportionality statement example if DI is 1.42 for Black or African American Children: The percent of black children that exited foster care is 1.42 times higher than the percent of black children in Oregon's child population.

Adoption and Guardianship Program

The DHS Permanency Program facilitates selection and finalization of adoption and guardianship as permanency options for children in foster care when it is no longer in their best interest to return to the care of their biological parents. DHS also provides regulatory oversight and processing of all adoptions filed in the State of Oregon for children who are not in DHS custody.

Special Needs and Adoption Assistance

The vast majority of children adopted during FFY 2018 had one or more primary basis for special needs (662 children or 99.4 percent) and received some type of adoption assistance.

The Adoption Assistance Program in Oregon provides financial and/or medical assistance to adoptive parents to help support the adoptive parents in meeting their adoptive child's special needs. Adoption Assistance supports the adoption of children with special needs who cannot be placed in an adoptive home without some form of medical coverage and/or financial assistance.

Adoption assistance can include subsidy and medical agreement, a subsidy only agreement, a medical only agreement or an agreement only which keeps the child's eligibility for assistance intact if needed in the future.

Preserving Connections

DHS places a high value on preserving and promoting relationships between siblings and placing them together in the same adoptive family whenever it is safe and possible to do so. In FFY 2018, a total of 324 children who were adopted had siblings also adopted during the year. Of these children, 306 (94.4 percent) were adopted by the same family as one or more of their siblings.

Timeliness of Finalization

A primary goal of federal and state governments is to establish permanency for a child as soon as possible. The federal government has established parameters that guide states in this effort, which includes establishing a national standard for the median length of time to achieve adoption. Achieving timely adoptions continues to present challenges for Oregon. While the length of time to achieve adoption varies, the median time to adoption was 36.2 months for children whose adoptions were finalized in FFY 2018. This is the same median months to adoption from FFY 2017.

Careful processes help ensure adoptions will be successful. Statistics show 97 percent of Oregon's adoptive placements continued to finalization without disruption in FFY 2018.

Guardianship

When a child cannot be returned home, and adoption is not in the child's best interests, guardianship is considered to be a more permanent plan for a child than long-term foster care since guardians have legal custody of the child.

Guardianship Completion

During FFY 2018, a total of 454 children exited to a guardianship, up 1.6 percent from 447 children in FFY 2017. The majority of children go to guardianship with relatives.
