

Best Practices for Finding Qualified Workers

How can you get started hiring employees with disabilities? Here are some ideas:

NO. 1

Learn about local available resources for training, awareness, and support.

NO. 6

Embed disability components into training for HR and new employees, and include disability in diversity training.

NO. 2

Create opportunities for job shadowing.

NO. 7

Participate in job fairs.

NO. 3

Conduct informational interviews.

NO. 8

Create internships.

NO. 4

Host a Disability Mentoring Day.

NO. 9

Join the Business Leadership Network in your state.

NO. 5

Participate in National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

NO. 10

Connect with Vocational Rehabilitation Agencies in your state and work with them on how you can participate; distribute position announcements to them.