

SNAP work or activity rules for veterans

Veterans may need to meet work or activity rules to receive SNAP benefits.

What to know

Federal rules require some adults ages 18 through 64 to meet SNAP work or activity rules to keep getting food benefits. These rules apply to people with ABAWD status, which stands for able-bodied adults without dependents. You will find out if you need to meet the work or activity rules when you apply for SNAP or renew your benefits.

You may be exempt from SNAP work or activity rules if:

- ✓ A child under age 14 gets SNAP with you
- ✓ You are a student
- ✓ You care for someone who cannot care for themselves
- ✓ You cannot work because of a disability or health condition
- ✓ You meet another exemption

Scan the QR code on the next page for the full exemption list.

- ✓ If one of these describes you, you may be exempt from the SNAP work or activity rules for people with ABAWD status. Please let us know you meet an exemption when you apply for or renew benefits.

If you do not meet the work or activity rules and you are not exempt, you can get SNAP for no more than 3 months in a 3-year period. If you start meeting the rules, you may be able to get your benefits back.

Don't wait until your SNAP benefits stop

If you are not exempt, you must complete the work or activity rules to receive SNAP.

What are the work or activity rules?

If you are not exempt, you must do at least 80 hours a month of activities such as:

- ✓ Paid work
- ✓ Volunteering
- ✓ Trading work for housing or other needs
- ✓ Participating in the Oregon Employment Department's ABAWD program
- ✓ Any mix of the above
