

A Short List of Publicly Available Layoff and Job Search Resources

Oregon Specific Resources:

Career Resources

Higher Education Coordinating Commission

The Office of Workforce Investments, working with local workforce development boards, offers help to both employers and workers before and during a layoff. If you are a worker who has been laid off or has been notified of an impending layoff, we offer free services that prepare you to find new work.

- Layoff Resources for Workers and Employers
- Guide_for_Laid_Off_Workers_in_Oregon_English.pdf
 - Other language versions are available at the Layoff resources link above.
- Oregon Rapid Response and Layoff Aversion Information and Contact List.pdf

Oregon Career Information System

The Oregon Career Information System (CIS) provides a system of occupational and educational information to help Oregonians learn about the world of work and education. We work with schools, colleges, social agencies, and businesses who provide career guidance and employee development services.

- Open Access for All - Adult
 - Create a portfolio and review resources
- Workshop Registration | Oregon Career Information System
 - Register for a workshop to learn more
 - Use the “Adult Site Training” option

Job Boards

Job search sites | Multnomah County Library

Job and Career Help | wccls.org

State of Oregon Job Opportunities

Worksource Oregon

WorkSource Oregon is your one-stop career center and a proud partner of the American Job Center network. All services are free.

WorkSource Oregon - Home

*Special thanks to Arlene Weible and Janelle Youngblood with the State Library of Oregon for quickly helping me collect these resources into one document.

- Training and Education Resources
- Workshops
- Career Planning

Federal Resources:

U.S. Department of Labor

Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration supports several resources to assist job seekers with finding employment and access to training.

- Job Seekers

*Special thanks to Arlene Weible and Janelle Youngblood with the State Library of Oregon for quickly helping me collect these resources into one document.