New Applicant Temporary Permit

Effective July 6, 2020

As of July 6, 2020, DMV will no longer issue the legacy hand-written applicant temporary permit forms. →

Instead, DMV will only issue a new system-generated print-on-demand document (see example on Page 2).

The reasons DMV may issue a temporary driver/ID permit (temp permit) are not changing, nor are there any changes to eligibility requirements. These are outlined in statute and administrative rule under ORS 807.310 and OAR 735-062-0032 (license/permit) and 807.405 and OAR 735-062-0033 (ID card).

As an example, DMV may issue a temp permit to a person whose driver license is about to expire but can't renew because they need to go to a vision specialist as required in OAR 735-062-0060.

DMV's new system-generated temp permit was developed in collaboration with law enforcement and follows best practices from other states that issue similar temporary driver permits.

Key differences regarding the new temp permits:

1. Only generated in DMV's computer system and printed on white paper stock;
2. Recorded on the person's driver record instantly; and,
3. Real-time verification of temp permit details via LEDS inquiry.

The new temp permit provides several benefits not possible with the prior legacy forms, and it incorporates additional features such as the use of reverse printing (black background) for the expiration date, making alterations more difficult.

In addition, when DMV issues a replacement temp permit (e.g., the first temp was lost) the previous temp permit is invalidated, and the person's driver record is updated in real-time.

Some legacy temp forms may still be in circulation if it issued prior to July 6, 2020. However, no legacy temp permits will be valid after Oct. 1, 2020.

The image shows two forms side-by-side. The left form is the 'OREGON DRIVER LICENSE' and the right form is the 'OREGON TEMPORARY DRIVER PERMIT / ID CARD'. The permit form is highlighted in yellow. Both forms include fields for personal information (name, address, date of birth, height, weight, sex), license class (Class C, Provisional, Class A, Class B, Class C), and endorsement(s) (School Bus, Passenger, Hazmat, Tanker, Motorcycle, etc.). The permit form also includes a 'REASON: (FOR ISSUANCE)' section and an expiration date field.
