Survivorship means there is co-ownership of the vehicle (For example: If the title is in your name and another person's name, with survivorship, and the other person is now deceased, you have sole ownership of the vehicle and can apply for a new title using the Title Transfer With Survivorship instructions).

The process to transfer your title will depend on whether survivorship is listed on the title and whether the estate is probated or not. The Oregon title will show survivorship if it was requested, see the example below.

DMV cannot provide legal advice.

Instructions to Transfer Title for Your Situation:

Title Has Survivorship
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate NOT probated
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate being probated
Title Does Not Have Survivorship or All New Owners - Estate probated but now closed

Provide the following to DMV when at least one owner is staying on the title:

- A completed Application for Title and Registration;
  - Instead of printing this application, you can start your application online at DMV2U if you plan to go to a DMV office within 30 days.
- The Oregon title, if available
- Proof of death for each deceased owner (death certificate, funeral notice or obituary);
- If all owners are changing, an odometer disclosure, if required;
- Original releases or bills of sale from all previous owners, except for any deceased owner;
- Original lien releases from any previous security interest holders; and
- The appropriate title fee.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV. If you also want registration, go to page 3.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV. If you also want registration, see the Registration section below.

Along with all of the requirements listed in the section above for your situation, you must also provide the following to DMV:

- If the vehicle does not already have plates, proof of compliance, or exemption from the Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) requirement;
- A Certificate of Compliance for passing an emissions test at DEQ if your vehicle is required to be tested and you live in a DEQ area;
- Your plate choice, if the vehicle does not have plates or if you want a different plate; and
- The appropriate registration fee, based on your plate choice.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV.

If you apply for registration, you are certifying:

- You currently have, and will maintain, motor vehicle insurance required by Oregon law for as long as you register the vehicle; and
- Your home is in Oregon or you are eligible, or required, to register under Oregon law.
