Along with all of the requirements listed in the section for your situation, you must also provide the following to DMV:
- If the vehicle does not already have plates, proof of compliance, or exemption from the Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) requirement;
- A Certificate of Compliance for passing an emissions test at DEQ if your vehicle is required to be tested and you live in a DEQ area;
- Your plate choice, if the vehicle does not have plates or if you want a different plate; and
- The appropriate registration fee, based on your plate choice.

If you are already listed on the Oregon title, you can renew your registration or replace your plates online.

If you need a DEQ test before applying, check out their website for options and closures.

If you apply for registration, you are certifying:
- You currently have, and will maintain, motor vehicle insurance required by Oregon law for as long as you register the vehicle; and
- Your home is in Oregon or you are eligible, or required, to register under Oregon law.
