If you bought a new vehicle from an Oregon dealer, they may submit the title and registration paperwork for you, otherwise you must apply.

Provide the following to DMV:

- A completed Application for Title and Registration;
  - Instead of printing this application, you can start your application online at DMV2U if you plan to go to a DMV office within 30 days.
- The original Manufacturer’s Certificate of Origin (MCO);
- The original odometer disclosure;
- Original releases or bills of sale from any previous owners;
- Original lien releases from any previous security interest holders;
- If you bought the vehicle from an out-of-state dealer and your vehicle is subject to the tax, you may need a Use Tax Certificate from the Oregon Department of Revenue; and
- The appropriate title fee.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV.

Along with all of the requirements listed in the section above, you must also provide the following to DMV:

- Proof of compliance, or exemption from, the Low Emissions Vehicle (LEV) requirement;
- Your plate choice; and
- The appropriate registration fee, based on your plate choice.

Submit the documents and payment to DMV.

Brand new passenger vehicles, light trailers, mopeds, and most motorcycles must get four-year registration, unless a plate is transferred onto the vehicle.

If you apply for registration, you are certifying:

- You currently have, and will maintain, motor vehicle insurance required by Oregon law for as long as you register the vehicle; and
- Your home is in Oregon or you are eligible, or required, to register under Oregon law.
