VEHICLE ABANDONED ON PRIVATE PROPERTY NOTICE

Clear Form

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY:

1. This form must be completed and submitted to DMV by an appropriate authority, as described in ORS 819.140 (1)(b) or (c), if you determine to dispose of an abandoned vehicle, abandoned on private property and appraised at a value of $1,000 or less, without notice and public auction (ORS 819.280).

An appropriate authority designation depends on the location of the vehicle. If the vehicle is on property within the boundaries of a county, the sheriff of the county or a county agency with appropriate authority may take the vehicle into custody and exercise the powers relating to authority over the vehicle. If the vehicle is on property within the boundaries of a city, the city police or city agency with appropriate authority may take the vehicle into custody and exercise the powers relating to authority over the vehicle. ONLY AN APPROPRIATE AUTHORITY MAY COMPLETE THIS FORM.

2. A vehicle disposed of under ORS 819.280 may only be disposed of to an Oregon licensed dismantler.
3. Keep a copy of this certificate. The authority disposing of the vehicle may submit this original document to the dismantler instead of submitting ownership or other title documents. Make and submit a copy to the county for their records, if applicable.
4. Disposal of a vehicle to a dismantler, as provided in ORS 819.280, extinguishes all prior ownership and possessory rights.
