

RECRUITMENT – HWY 126E (east of Springfield)

Committee Purpose

The Lane Area Commission on Transportation (ACT) advises the Oregon Transportation Commission and is a forum for state and local stakeholders to collaborate on Lane County transportation issues.

Applicant Criteria

1. Be able to attend monthly meetings on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in Springfield and in other locations from time to time;
2. Be willing to serve up to a four (4) year term; and
3. Live in Lane County OR represent a business or organization operating in Lane County.

Why Recruit?

The LaneACT aims to represent a broad spectrum of perspectives. It is a voluntary association of governments and non-governmental transportation stakeholders. The LaneACT will appoint one (1) member from this recruitment. The recruitment is targeted to applicants representing the interests of community members residing or working in the area of Highway 126E (east of Springfield). LaneACT is a pilot community for ODOT's new Area Strategies Initiative. This is a critical time to provide input on the development of Area Strategies to meet local, regional, and statewide transportation goals.
