NEED FOR THE RULE(S):

The passage of Oregon Laws 2025, chapter 55 (HB 2660), requires the Driver and Motor Vehicle Services (DMV) to amend several Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) (OAR 735-034-0010, 735-034-0050, 735-150-0040, 735-150-0070, and 735-150-0140). This new law expands the list of available DMV trip permits. Starting January 1, 2026, Oregon vehicle dealers can issue a single 30-day recreational vehicle (RV) trip permit for RVs purchased by non-residents who do not intend to title the vehicle in Oregon. Each permit costs $70.

DMV proposes amending OAR 735-034-0010 to specify that only vehicle dealers can issue the new 30-day RV trip permit. The proposed amendment also outlines the required steps for issuing the permit.

DMV proposes amending OAR 735-034-0050 to specify that only vehicle dealers are authorized to issue the new 30-day RV Trip Permit, and they must do so in accordance with ORS 803.600.

DMV proposes amending OAR 735-150-0040 to include the issuance of the new 30-day RV trip permits in the list of authorized actions for Oregon dealers as agents of DMV.

DMV proposes amending OAR 735-150-0070 to exclude the new 30-day RV trip permit from the list of actions a designated dealer may perform under section (1). This exclusion is due to the specific issuance requirements outlined in ORS 803.600. Additionally, DMV proposes amending administrative rules to include a section detailing when the permit may be issued by dealers, the permit's validity period, and the stipulation that only one permit may be issued per RV by the same dealer.

DMV proposes amending OAR 735-150-0140 to update the schedule of civil penalties for certified dealers, ensuring the list includes the new 30-day RV trip permits and a violation of OAR 735-150-0110(29), concerning a dealer's failure to complete a vehicle record search, verify the title information, or inform the customer of any brand, defect or irregularity.

STATEMENT IDENTIFYING HOW ADOPTION OF RULE(S) WILL AFFECT RACIAL EQUITY IN THIS STATE:

The proposed amendments to the administrative rules are directly tied to the passage of Oregon Laws 2025, chapter 55 (HB 2660). This legislation requires DMV to update several rules to accommodate the new 30-day RV (RV) trip permits for non-Oregon residents. These changes ensure that DMV's regulations align with the requirements set forth in HB 2660.

The proposed amendments will not affect racial equity in Oregon. The changes are primarily administrative, focusing on the issuance of 30-day RV trip permits for non-residents. They specify that only vehicle dealers can issue these permits and outline the necessary steps for doing so. Since the changes are procedural and pertain to a specific type of vehicle permit, they do not introduce any new policies or practices that would disproportionately impact any racial or ethnic group. The focus is on ensuring compliance with existing regulations and improving administrative efficiency.

FISCAL AND ECONOMIC IMPACT:

See below.

COST OF COMPLIANCE:

(1) Identify any state agencies, units of local government, and members of the public likely to be economically affected by the rule(s). (2) Effect on Small Businesses: (a) Estimate the number and type of small businesses subject to the rule(s); (b) Describe the expected reporting, recordkeeping and administrative activities and cost required to comply with the rule(s); (c) Estimate the cost of professional services, equipment supplies, labor and increased administration required to comply with the rule(s).

(1) Oregon Laws 2025, chapter 55, requires the DMV to issue the new 30-day RV trip permit and set a fee of $70. Except for the civil penalties described below, this rulemaking will not add any additional mandatory compliance costs for the public or other government agencies. If a vehicle dealer elects to issue 30-day RV trip permits, the requirements will apply.

In this rulemaking, DMV is adding a civil penalty for failure to comply with any provision of ORS 803.600 or OAR 735-150-0080 related to the 30-day RV trip permit to the list of current civil penalties that may be imposed on a vehicle dealer under OAR 735-150-0140. The sanction matrix in rule for failure to comply with requirements for issuing 30-day

RV trip permits will be the same for dealers as any failure to comply with requirements related to the issuance of other types of trip permits. The schedule starts with a warning and progressively increases, with the penalty reaching $250 on the fourth and subsequent failures to comply. DMV does not anticipate imposing a disproportionate number of sanctions or civil penalties compared to the current practice for dealers issuing 10-day trip permits, and the impact on vehicle dealers is expected to be minimal.

(2) Notwithstanding the possibility of a sanction being assessed to a vehicle dealer as described in (1) above, DMV believes there will be no additional impact on small businesses. All other costs and benefits associated with issuing the 30-day RV trip permit are a direct result of the new law's passage, including any additional sales by vehicle dealers due to the new permit type. However, if a vehicle dealer elects to issue 30-day RV trip permits, the dealer must comply with the requirements for issuance of the 30-day trip permits or become subject to an enforcement action by DMV.

(2)(a) All vehicle dealers in Oregon that sell RVs would be subject to the proposed rules. There are approximately 2,100 Oregon dealers currently certified to do business that are not expired, cancelled, or suspended. DMV is unable to provide an estimate of the number of RV dealers that qualify as small businesses in Oregon.

(2)(b) Vehicle dealers issuing a 30-day RV trip permit must retain a copy of the permit and submit another copy to DMV, following the same requirements for other trip permits issued by vehicle dealers. Additionally, dealers must retain records proving they complied with the requirements to issue the 30-day RV trip permit, such as the purchase agreement indicating intent to register out of state.

(2)(c) DMV believes this will not significantly increase the cost of professional services, equipment, supplies, labor, or administration. The vehicle dealer would need to obtain permits and maintain records of 30-day RV trip permits, but any costs should be minimal, as vehicle dealers already issue and maintain records for 10-day DMV trip permits.

DESCRIBE HOW SMALL BUSINESSES WERE INVOLVED IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THESE RULE(S):

DMV shared the draft rules with small business representatives; however, no responses were received. DMV sent a draft of the rules and this Statement of Need and Fiscal Impact to members of the Oregon Dealer Advisory Committee (ODAC) and other vehicle industry partners for their input. Some members of ODAC represent small businesses.

WAS AN ADMINISTRATIVE RULE ADVISORY COMMITTEE CONSULTED? NO IF NOT, WHY NOT?

DMV consulted with the Oregon Dealer Advisory Committee (ODAC), which represents the interests of vehicle dealers. This allowed DMV to receive their comments and concerns without conducting a formal RAC meeting.

RULES PROPOSED:

735-034-0010, 735-034-0050, 735-150-0040, 735-150-0070, 735-150-0140

AMEND: 735-034-0010

RULE SUMMARY: DMV proposes amending OAR 735-034-0010 to specify that only vehicle dealers can issue the new 30-day RV trip permit. The proposed amendment also outlines the required steps for issuing the permit.
