

Definition of “High-percentage of Low-income Households: Cow Creek Tribal Statewide Transportation Improvement Fund (STIF) Advisory Committee Bylaws set the definition of “Low Income Households” as any household with a total household income at or below 200% of the current Federal Poverty Level or Federal Poverty Guideline for the size of family including children and dependents. "Areas of High Percentage of Low-Income Households” shall mean geographic areas within Douglas County that are determined to have a high percentage of low-income households.

US Census Bureau's Factfinder data for 2017 indicates Douglas County has 106,131 individuals¹ with a household average size of 2.36², or 44,970 households, with 18,138 households under the 200% poverty level³, or 40.3%. The Oregon percentage is 39.9%. This would qualify the entire county as being below 200% of the current Federal Poverty Level Guidelines. The transit service qualifies as servicing a majority of the eligible Low-Income Households.
