

Say what you see

A game to play in the car to help keep others safe on the street

Let's play a game.
It's easy to play.
You just say what you see
In the car, on the way.

Look here and look there.
Look left and look right.

I see a dog and his person,
Up there by the light.

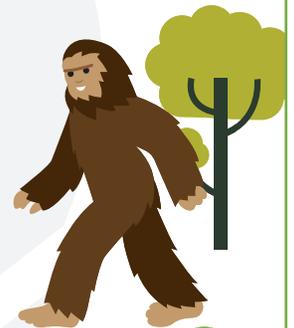

Look here and look there.
Look straight and all 'round.
Make a habit of looking.
Don't let your guard down.

I see two wheels!

I see two hairy feet!

A bicyclist riding and
Bigfoot crossing the street?!

Remember:

- ✓ Every intersection is a crosswalk, so expect people.
- ✓ Mind the road, not your phone.
- ✓ Slow down in school zones.
- ✓ Yield to bike riders before turning.

Let's play a game
Where everyone wins –
Kids going to school
And all Oregonians.

If you say what you see
And see what you say,
We'll all get there safely
And have a great day.
