Oregon law requires children to be secured in a rear-facing safety seat until their second birthday. This greatly improves their chance of surviving a crash.

What to do... REAR FACING until they’re 2.

Keep them safe!
Get safety seat tips here.