

ODOT Low-Income Toll Program: Enrollment Process

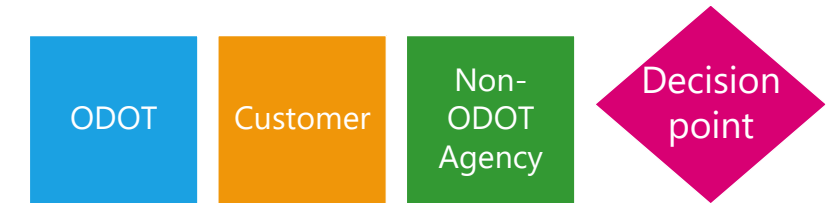

Note: This information identifies our August 2023 thinking for toll operations. It is provided to spur discussion and input to enhance our work. Changes will be made between now and when tolling begins as toll rules are established and more is learned through the implementation process. We are planning to make a toll operations system that is scalable and evolves to lessons learned along the way.

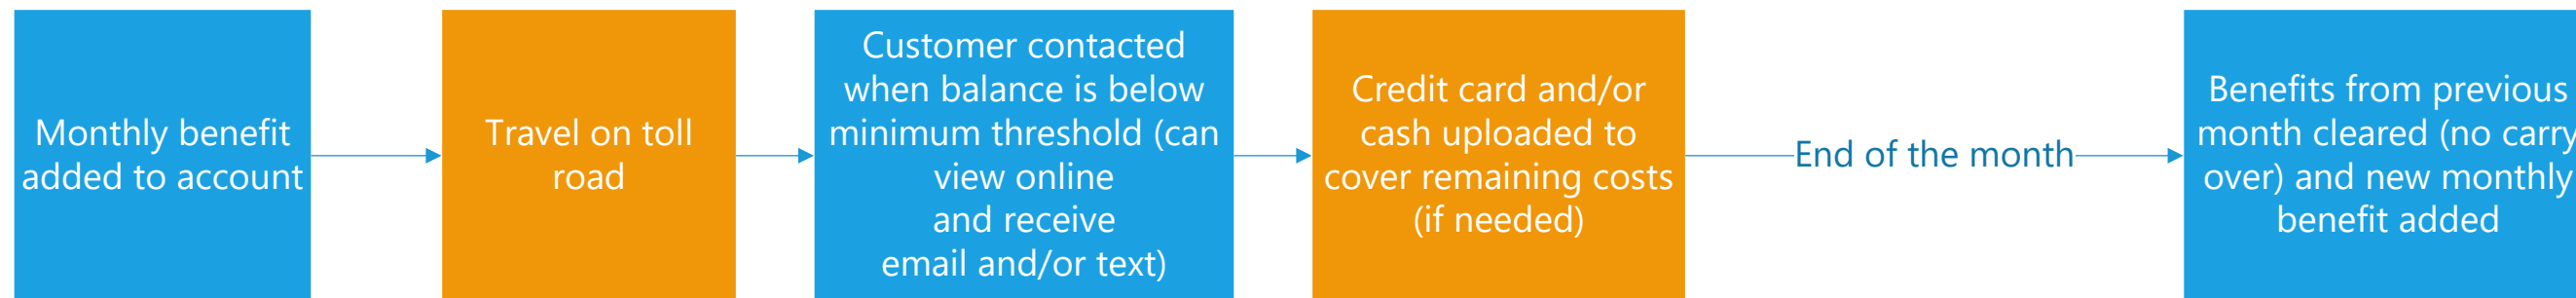

Date updated: September 8, 2023

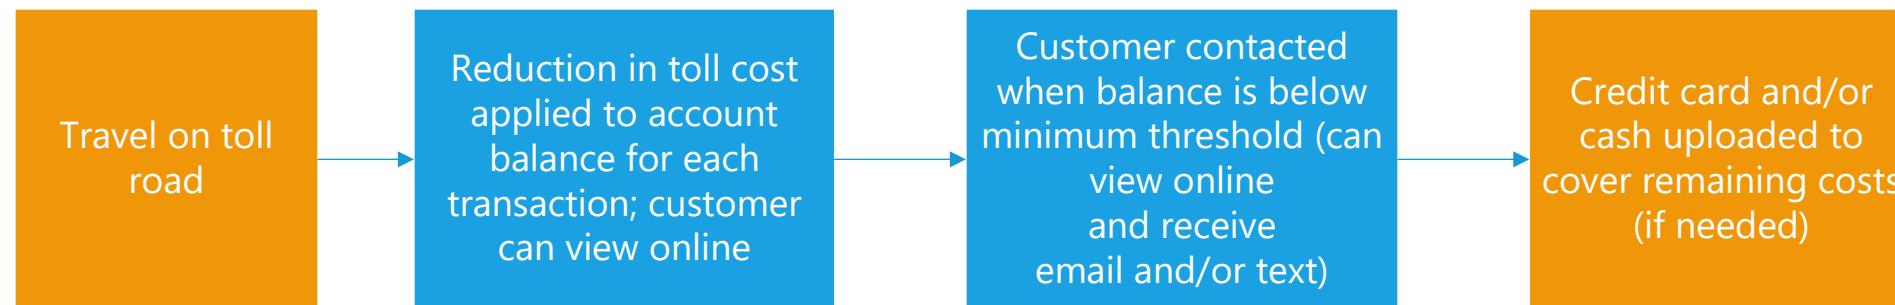

ODOT Low-Income Toll Program: Benefit Distribution

Option 1. Free trips (monthly) / Option 2. Credits (monthly)

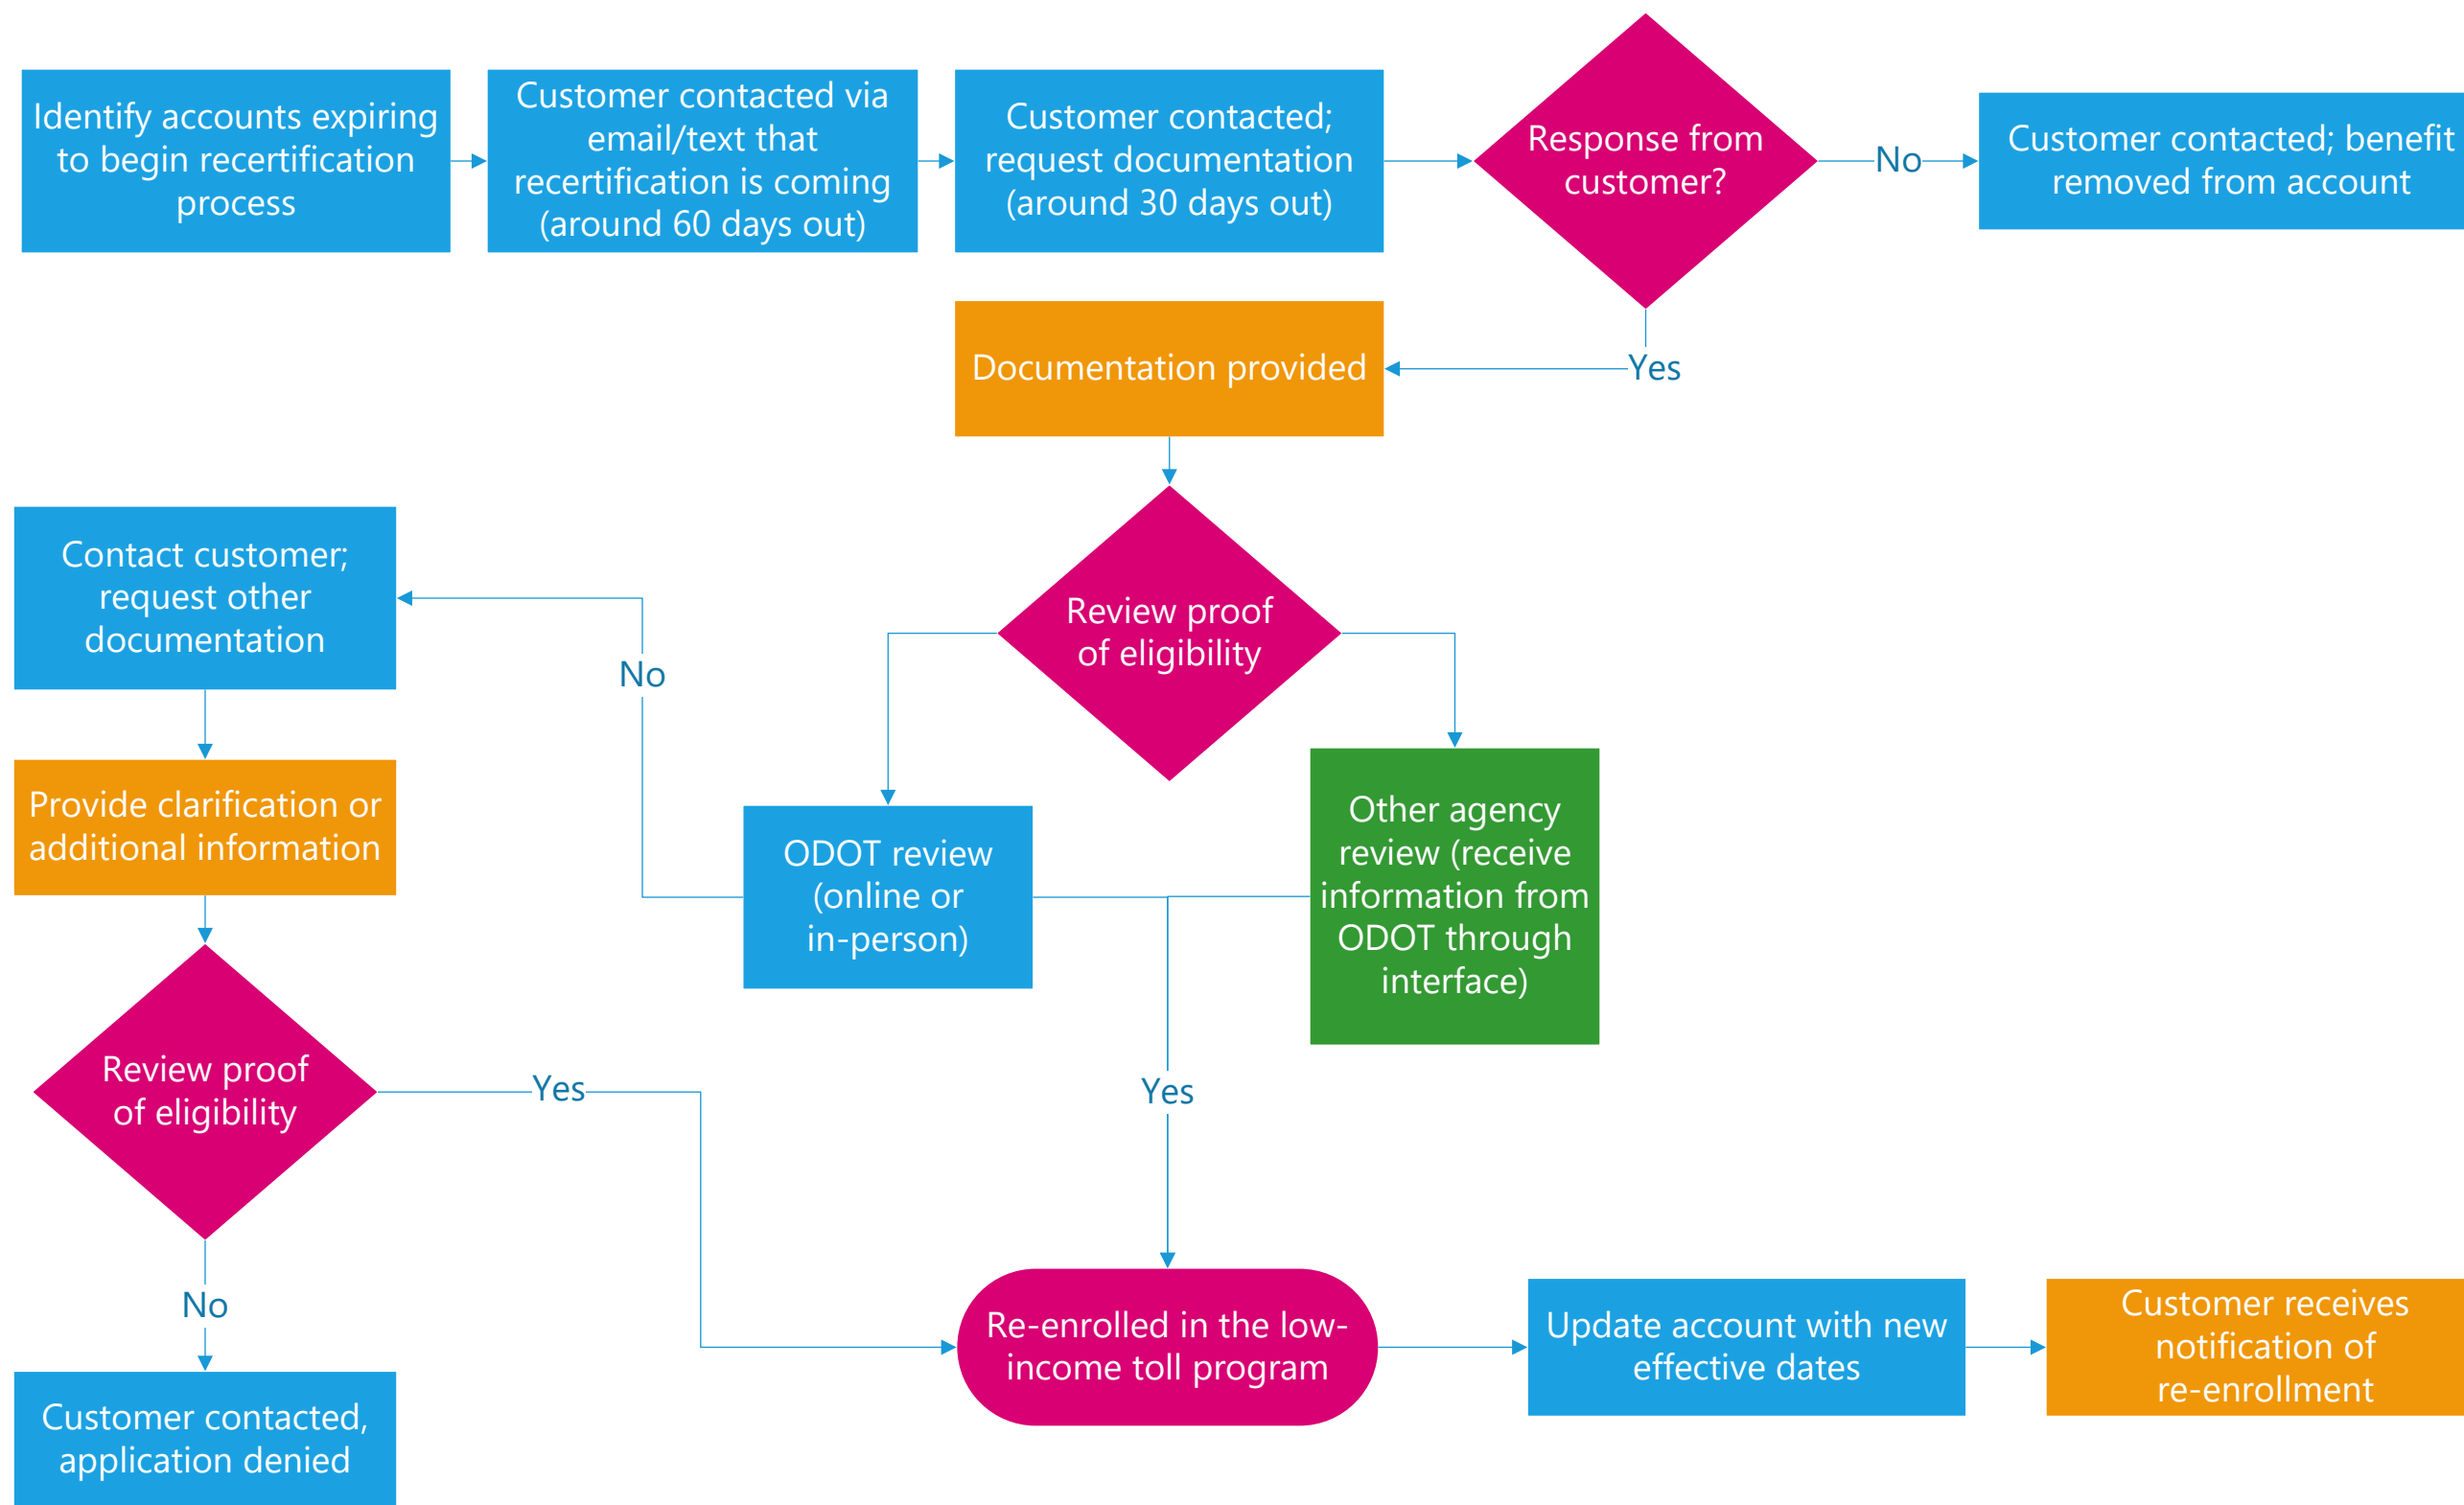

Option 3. Percentage discount (per transaction)

Note: This information identifies our August 2023 thinking for toll operations. It is provided to spur discussion and input to enhance our work. Changes will be made between now and when tolling begins as toll rules are established and more is learned through the implementation process. We are planning to make a toll operations system that is scalable and evolves to lessons learned along the way.

ODOT Low-Income Toll Program: Recertification Process

Note: This information identifies our August 2023 thinking for toll operations. It is provided to spur discussion and input to enhance our work. Changes will be made between now and when tolling begins as toll rules are established and more is learned through the implementation process. We are planning to make a toll operations system that is scalable and evolves to lessons learned along the way.