

HIGHLIGHTED FIELDS have updated information listed:

Highlighted fields contain updated from previously reported on 03/20/2020

Baker: No public contact. All business being done via phone / email until further notice

Benton: No public contact, all appointments taking place via phone / email until further notice

Clackamas: No public contact, working remotely, until further notice

Clatsop: Working from home, originally would be returning to the office on 04/03/2020 that has been canceled. Will continue working from home until further notice

Columbia: No public contact. In the office Tues & Thurs. Working remotely Mon. Wed. Fri. all business being conducted via phone / email

Coos: Matt is working from home, Denise is in the office to triage phone calls, NO public contact of any kind until further notice

Crook: Working remotely until further notice. Shannon will be in and out of the office to check mail etc.

CTUIR: Doing most business via email and phone

Curry: No public contact, Receptionist working remotely. Tony is out on medical leave until May 2020.

Office hours at the moment are part-time Mon-Fri 08:00-13:00 CLOSED Friday until further notice

Deschutes: All county offices closed until 04/10/2020 subject to change, CVSOs all working remotely, checking phone messages & responding accordingly

Douglas: Department heads are the only employees in the office, all other employees working from home. No public contact

Gilliam / Sherman / Wheeler: no contact available

Grant: Normal operations (still open to the public)

Harney: Working remotely until further notice

Hood River: NO public contact, Eric in office taking calls and responding to emails until further notice

Jackson: All staff working from home, Pat (Manager) in office, along with Admin. Staff with no public contact.

Jefferson: No public contact at this time, all business being done via phone / email

Josephine: No public contact, all business taking place via phone / email until further notice

Klamath: No public contact. All business being done via email / phone until further notice

Lake: Working remote from home – communicating with vet's via phone/email only until further notice

Lane: No public contact, all communications happening via phone / email until further notice

Lincoln: Per voicemail recording – checking voicemails daily, no public contact, no outreach until further notice

Linn: No public contact, all business taking place via phone and / or email until further notice

Malheur: Building closed to public contact, some veteran contact depending on issue with proper protective gear being worn, Connie and Tonya both in the office taking calls and returning emails / voicemails.

Marion: Receptionist answering calls and receiving incoming mail. CVSOs working remotely

Morrow: No public contact, all business taking place via phone / email. Linda is visiting the office on occasion to check mail / voicemail. Otherwise working remotely from home responding to phone calls and emails.

Multnomah: Essential employees only allowed to access County building until further notice. CVSOs working from home

Polk: Office is closed, staff working from home until further notice

Tillamook: No public contact. All business being conducted via email / phone

Umatilla: All county offices closed. Employees will still report to work, but conduct all business matters via phone / email until further notice

Union: Will be working from home until further notice

Wallowa: Normal operations as of 03/18 at 14:26

Wasco: Office is closed, working remotely, conducting business via email / phone until further notice

Washington: No public contact, all business being handled via phone or email. A secured “white” drop box is located outside of their building to allow Veterans to drop off paperwork. That box will be checked regularly.

Yamhill: No public contact, business being conducted via phone / email until further notice

* Information as of March 26, 2020 at 13:00 ****