25 mins Steph Sharp: Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery Manager for CareOregon: Navigating Continuity Planning Challenges.

How do we get high level department level, as COOP as other duties as assigned.

One member got buy in for 15 minutes meetings regularly. This helped build rapport with leadership, and they ended up wanting the meetings to go longer.

One member found that leaders dislike having work assigned to them, so instead they complete what I think is correct from their perspective and then bring to leadership to tell them if its am correct or way off. Leadership loves having something to react to rather than to start from scratch.
