

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Basic Applied Practices Series (BAPS) Description

The Oregon Department of Emergency Management Basic Applied Practices Series consists of seven required courses and four elective courses. The intent of the BAPS is to provide training needed by all emergency service providers for successful field operations. Courses in the Professional Development Series (PDS) cannot be used to meet BAPS elective requirements.

The seven required training courses are:

- FEMA IS-100 (any version): Introduction to Incident Command System
- FEMA IS-200 (any version): ICS for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents OR FEMA IS-2200 (any version): Basic Emergency Operations Center Functions
- FEMA IS-700 (any version): Introduction to the National Incident Management System (NIMS)
- FEMA IS-800 (any version): The National Response Plan (NRP), An introduction
- FEMA IS-393: Introduction to Hazard Mitigation
- FEMA IS-1000: Public Assistance Program and Eligibility
- Hazmat Awareness OR Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) Awareness (IS-5, AWR-160, AWR-358, etc.)

The FEMA Independent Study (IS) website is: <http://training.fema.gov/IS/crslist.aspx>

Four elective courses are also required to receive a BAPS Certificate of Completion. Courses may be chosen from the following list of categories:

- Any ICS Courses beyond required courses listed above (G0191, G0300, G0400, etc.)
- Any EMI/NFA attended course
- FEMA/NFA IS Courses – each course must be at least 4 contact hours (.4 CEU) according to the EMI or NFA website. Professional Development Series IS courses cannot be used to meet this requirement.
- Community Emergency Response Team (and TTT)
- Hazardous Materials, Weapons of Mass Destruction, Domestic Preparedness Courses
- Basic or Advanced PIO (or other PIO/Crisis Communication type course)
- Earthquake Courses
- Hazard Mitigation Courses
- Radiological Courses
- Managing Emergency or Search Operations
- Mass Fatalities Incident Planning
- Defense Support of Civil Authorities (DSCA)

Upon completion of the seven required and four elective courses, interested parties should send an email to OEM State Training at oem.training@oem.oregon.gov requesting a Basic Applied Practices Series Certificate of Completion. A copy of all course completion certificates must accompany the request.

Note: All certifications previously awarded remain valid, regardless of any future changes to certification requirements. Updates to criteria will not affect the status of certifications already granted.