

Oregon Drug Use Review/Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee

Member Biographies

F. Douglas Carr, MD, MMM

Dr. Carr joined Umpqua Health Alliance in July 2107 as Medical Director of the CCO that serves Douglas County. His prior experience in the Northwest includes leadership roles at PeaceHealth Medical Group and the Eugene VA Healthcare Center.

Dr. Carr previously worked for 24 years at Billings Clinic (Montana), where he served in various clinical and management roles in regional operations and education. His diverse experiences there include leadership responsibilities in the first Medicare ACO demonstration, regional telemedicine program, FM and IM residencies, FQHC, public health, provider-sponsored health insurance, as well as statewide PCMH initiatives and state employee pharmacy plan.

Dr. Carr has served on P&T committees at numerous organizations over the last 35 years.

He received his medical degree from Northwestern University - Chicago, IL, completed internships at New Rochelle Medical Center, NY, and Metropolitan Medical Center, NY and residency at Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco, CA. He is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians and completed his Master of Medical Management from Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine.

Pat DeMartino, MD, MPH

Dr. DeMartino is a pediatric hematologist/oncologist and assistant professor at Oregon Health & Science University. He is the associate program director for the hematology oncology fellowship. His academic interests include health services research, health economics, and equity.

Russell Huffman, DNP, PMHNP

Russell Huffman is a psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner at Salem Health, embedded in the primary care medical group. Past experience includes teaching at Gonzaga University; working in community mental health, predominantly with people with severe mental illness and/or who are houseless; and working in the inpatient psychiatry unit at Portland Adventist Medical Center. He is a member of the Willamette Health Council's Clinical Advisory Panel and has published in the Journal of the American Psychiatric Nurses Association.

CDR Timothy G. Langford, Pharm D, BCPS, USPHS

Dr. Langford, a board-certified pharmacist, is the Pharmacy Director for the Klamath Tribes in Klamath County Oregon. As a Commissioned Officer in the US Public Health Service, he has practiced clinical pharmacy and provided administrative leadership over the last 18 years. He provides both direct patient care and population health through systems based approaches; along with administrative oversight of pharmacy services.

Cat Livingston, MD, MPH

Dr. Livingston graduated from Harvard Medical School and completed residency training in Family Medicine as well as Preventive Medicine at Oregon Health & Science University. She is the Medical Director of Health Share of Oregon. Concurrently, she is also an adjunct Associate Professor at OHSU and continues to see patients in a Federally Qualified Health Center. Previously, she worked for 10 years for the Health Evidence Review Commission translating evidence into coverage policy. Her research interests include evidence-based policy, Medicaid, substance use disorder, and population health.

Eriko Onishi, MD, MCR, PhD

Dr. Onishi graduated from Tsukuba School of Medicine in Japan. She came to the US to obtain Family Medicine (FM) Residency training, after which she practiced in a community in rural Indiana until joining the Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) Department of Family Medicine in October 2011.

Dr Onishi has been practicing FM both at OHSU and as part of the Palliative Care Medicine team at Salem Hospital in Salem, OR. She is also the Medical Director of a Portland area nursing home.

Dr Onishi has been serving as a member of the State of Oregon Advance Directive Adopted Committee since April 2019, where she and the other committee members have worked to revise the Oregon state Advance Directive (AD) form and are working to educate Oregonians about Advance Care Planning and the revised Oregon AD.

Dr Onishi is an Assistant Professor at the OHSU Department of Family Medicine and a Clinical Associate Professor of General Medicine at Tsukuba School of Medicine, where she works to teach and train FM residents and medical students in the US and Japan.

Stacy Ramirez, Pharm.D.

Dr. Ramirez is a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Pharmacy Practice at the Oregon State University College of Pharmacy. She joined the faculty in 2006 following nearly 20 years in community pharmacy practice and management. Her clinical focus is advancing the role of pharmacists in improving health outcomes for underserved patients and promoting the role of the pharmacist in primary care. She serves as the Director of Pharmacy and practices as a Clinical Pharmacist for the Community Health Centers of Benton and Linn Counties. Her courses in the College of Pharmacy include Healthcare Systems (Public Health), Pharmacy Management and a wellness/yoga elective. She serves on the College's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee and is the Chapter Advisor for Phi Lambda Sigma, a pharmacy fraternity focused on leadership. She is married with two children. In her free time, she practices Baptiste Yoga and is a Level 1 Certified Baptiste Yoga instructor.

Edward M. Saito, PharmD, BCACP, DPLA

Dr. Saito is an Associate Professor with Pacific University School of Pharmacy and clinical pharmacist with Virginia Garcia Memorial Health Center, a local FQHC with a special emphasis on serving seasonal and migrant farmworkers and others with barriers to receiving health care. As a pharmacist in primary care, he works alongside other clinicians to collaboratively provide medication management services for chronic conditions and serves as a drug information expert. He also works closely with patients and their families to provide education on nutrition and wellness and assists them with accessing and understanding their medications. He is a Board-Certified Ambulatory Care Pharmacist.

Bridget Bradley, PharmD, BCPP

Bridget Bradley, PharmD, BCPP Bridget Bradley, PharmD, BCPP is a clinical pharmacist at Kaiser Northwest in the psychiatry department. She is a Board Certified Psychiatric Pharmacist and manages medications for a variety of mental health disorders. She works collaboratively with all team members to ensure patients are educated about their medications and proper use.

Jeanne Savage, MD

Jeanne Savage, MD is Chief Medical Officer, Trillium Community Health Plan and Health Net Health Plan of Oregon, Inc.

Dr. Jeanne Savage is Chief Medical Officer of Trillium Community Health Plan and Health Net Health Plan of Oregon, Inc., subsidiaries of Centene Corporation. Dr. Savage joined Trillium and Health Net in January 2020 and provides strategic leadership in the areas of quality, health equity and patient-centered best practices to these health plans offering Medicaid, Medicare, and commercial insurance throughout the state of Oregon.

Dr. Savage has extensive experience in family practice and hospital management, and throughout her career she has demonstrated a passion for providing integrated care to historically marginalized and underserved populations. Prior to her role at Trillium and Health Net, Dr. Savage was the Chief Medical Officer at Willamette Valley Community Health, a coordinated care organization in Salem, Oregon. She has also served as a Co-Medical Director at Salud Medical Center in Woodburn, Oregon, and she held patient medical care positions at Ventura County Medical Center in Ventura, California. Dr. Savage earned a Doctor of Medicine from Oregon Health and Science University and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from the University of Oregon. She speaks fluent English and Spanish.

In addition to her role at Trillium and Health Net, Dr. Savage serves as a Volunteer Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Family Medicine at Oregon Health and Science University and continues to work with the Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic, Salud Medical Center in Woodburn, Oregon.

Dr. Savage and her family reside in Portland, Oregon. She enjoys spending time with her family, coaching basketball, trail running, skiing, rafting, traveling, and reading or listening to books.