

Do you have health insurance from PacificSource?

Tell us what you think!

Join the Legacy and PacificSource Community Review Board!

Legacy Health is planning to transfer its ownership of PacificSource to the Legacy Health Foundation. This means that all of PacificSource, which offers commercial, Medicaid, and Medicare Advantage health plans, will be half owned by the Legacy Health Foundation.

Oregon Health Authority (OHA) is reviewing this proposal to make sure it supports Oregon's goals of health equity, lower costs, increased access, and better care. And you can help! We'd like to hear from PacificSource health plan members, Legacy Health patients, health care providers, health care experts, and consumer advocates.

Join a community review board.

This group will advise OHA about potential impacts and whether to approve the deal. Submit your application to become a member by Friday, January 24, 2025.
