The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he or she had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The Company shall indemnify a director, officer, employee, or manager seeking indemnity in connection with an action, suit, or proceeding (or part of an action, suit, or proceeding) initiated by such person only if the action, suit, or proceeding (or part of the action, suit, or proceeding) initiated by such person was authorized by the Member. The indemnification authorized in this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or manager and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of any person entitled to indemnification under this Article. No amendment, termination, or repeal of this Article, nor, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any modification of law, shall adversely affect or impair in any way the rights to be indemnified or to advancement of expenses pursuant to this Article with respect to any actions, omissions, transactions, or facts occurring prior to the final adoption of such amendment, modification, termination, or repeal.

FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES

22. Additional Members. Additional persons or entities may be admitted to the Company as members of the Company (“Additional Members”) if so agreed in writing by the Member in connection with either (a) a direct admission of such Additional Members or (b) a voluntary or involuntary sale or other transfer of all or part of the Member’s interest in the Company and the agreement of the Member and such transferee that such transferee shall become a substituted Additional Member of the Company with respect to the interest so transferred.

23. Continuation of the Member. If, following any voluntary or involuntary transfer of any portion of the Member’s interest in the Company, (a) the Member continues to own any interest in the Company, and (b) the Member has not consented in writing to the admission of the transferee as a substituted Additional Member, such transferee shall constitute an “Assignee” and shall have only such rights as are provided by the Delaware Act in the case of a transferee who is not a member, unless and until the written consent of the Member is obtained to such admission and substitution (which consent may be arbitrarily withheld by the Member).

24. Termination of the Member. If, following any voluntary or involuntary transfer (including, without limitation, any transfer by reason of the insolvency, bankruptcy or dissolution and liquidation of the Member, and being hereinafter referred to as a “Terminating Transfer”), the Member does not continue to own any interest in the Company, the Member shall be treated as having withdrawn from the Company effective as of the time of the Terminating Transfer, and all of the following persons shall automatically and immediately be admitted as substituted Additional Members of the Company:

(a) The person(s) to whom the remaining interests of the Member were transferred in the Terminating Transfer which resulted in the Member’s not continuing to own any interest in the Company.

(b) All person(s), if any, who are Assignees as of the date of Terminating Transfer.

25. More Than One Member. For purposes of this Section 25 and Section 26(a)(ii) only, the term “Members” shall mean and include the Member and any Additional Members. If, as a result of the admission of one or more Additional Members pursuant to the provisions of Section 22, Section 23 and/or Section 24, there are two or more Members of the Company, this Agreement shall terminate effective as of the date after the day upon which such one or more Additional Members were admitted as Additional Members of the Company. Until such time as all of the then Members may enter into an operating agreement as to the affairs of the Company and the conduct of the Company’s business, the provisions of the Delaware Act shall govern the affairs of the Company and the conduct of the Company’s business.

(a) General. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(i) The written election of the Member to dissolve the Company.

(ii) At any time when there are no remaining Members of the Company. (In any other situation where, following the withdrawal of any Member, there is at least one remaining Member, the Company shall not be dissolved, and the business and existence of the Company shall be continued by such remaining Member(s).)

(iii) The entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company under §1705.47 of the Ohio Act.

(iv) Any other event or circumstance giving rise to the dissolution of the Company under the Ohio Act, unless the Company's existence is continued pursuant to the Ohio Act.

(b) Liquidation and Termination. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Member shall act as liquidator or may appoint any other person to act as liquidator. The liquidator shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the Delaware Act. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidator shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Member. A reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Company and the discharge of liabilities to creditors so as to enable the liquidator to minimize any losses resulting from liquidation. The liquidator, as promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, shall cause a proper accounting to be made of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable, and shall apply the proceeds of liquidation as provided in Section 15. Upon compliance by the liquidator with the foregoing provisions, the liquidator shall execute and cause to be filed a Certificate of Dissolution and any and all other documents necessary with respect to termination and cancellation of the Company under the Delaware Act.
