ARTICLE VI

To the fullest extent permitted by law, a director or officer of the Company shall not be personally liable to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer. If the General Corporation Law or any other law of the State of Delaware is amended after approval by the stockholders of this Article VI to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors or officers, then the liability of a director or officer of the Company shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law as so amended.

Any amendment, repeal or elimination of the foregoing provisions of this Article VI by the stockholders of the Company shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of the Company existing at the time of, or increase the liability of any director or officer of the Company with respect to any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to, such amendment, repeal or elimination.

ARTICLE VII

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company is authorized to provide indemnification of (and advancement of expenses to) directors, officers and agents of the Company (and any other persons to which the General Corporation Law permits the Company to provide indemnification) through Bylaw provisions, agreements with such agents or other persons, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification and advancement otherwise permitted by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law.

Any amendment, repeal, modification or elimination of the foregoing provisions of this Article VII shall not (a) adversely affect any right or protection of any director, officer or other agent of the Company existing at the time of such amendment, repeal, modification or elimination; or (b) increase the liability of any director, officer or agent of the Company with respect to any acts or omissions of such director, officer or agent occurring prior to such amendment, repeal, modification or elimination.
