Free webinars: Value-based payment for providers

Wednesday, March 17th 1 pm - 2:30 pm: Using Value-based Payment to Reduce Health Disparities

National expert Marshall Chin, MD, will lead an engaging webinar to help CCOs, providers, and other health system partners apply lessons from care transformation and value-based payment models gleaned from systems throughout the U.S. to aid in reducing health disparities. This 90-minute session will leave plenty of time for conversation.

COVID-19 information sessions for providers

Thank you for your leadership and partnership in helping to slow the spread and address the health impacts of COVID-19 in Oregon. With this rapidly changing situation, we want to get information out to healthcare providers across the state as quickly and clearly as possible. To provide a consistent venue for COVID-19 information sharing, OHA's Chief Medical Officer, Dana Hargunani, M.D., will host regular information sessions for Oregon health care providers. Recordings of past sessions are available here: <https://www.oregon.gov/oha/PH/DISEASES/CONDITIONS/DISEASESAZ/Pages/COVID-19.aspx>

Informational sessions for all health care providers: 2nd Thursdays, 12-1 pm

COVID-19 response ECHO for Oregon clinicians: 2nd and 4th Thursdays, 12-1:15 pm

All Oregon clinicians are encouraged to register for these weekly interactive sessions to learn the latest information on best practices in clinical management, clinical practice safety, testing, and the community public health response.

- Hosted by the Oregon ECHO Network at OHSU, the sessions are staffed by Dr. Hargunani and Clackamas County Health Officer Sarah Present, MD
- A specialist panel, including other public health experts, clinicians, and epidemiologists, will share up-to-date knowledge, share COVID-19 clinical cases and answer questions.
- There will also be an opportunity for Oregon clinicians to present their own COVID-19 cases for discussion and recommendations.
- Participation takes place in a virtual meeting space — join from your own computer or cellphone.

Free zoom meditation practice for Oregon providers

Monday evenings, 8 - 8:30 pm

Meditation is a way to provide self-care, inner peace, and balance during these challenging times. Aram Levendosky — a licensed acupuncturist at AOM Health — is offering a series of free 30-minute guided meditations for health care providers in Oregon. These sessions will be held via zoom and will start with guided breathwork building towards refining concentration through practicing a full moon meditation. There will be time for questions in each session.

- Passcode: Q2eAdE

Schedule (4 sessions remaining):

- March 29th
- April 5th
- April 12th
- April 19th

About the teacher: Aram Levendosky is a licensed acupuncturist at AOM Health and holds a Masters of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine from the Oregon College of Oriental Medicine. His undergraduate degree in religious studies from UC Santa Barbara prompted his travels to Japan where he lived for four years and was trained and ordained as a Buddhist monk in the Shingon tradition. Aram's time as a monk inspired him to study acupuncture as a way to help others and to fulfill his purpose to bring about a healthier world.

About the Patient-Centered Primary Care Home Program

Patient-Centered Primary Care Homes (PCPCH) are health care clinics that have been recognized by the Oregon Health Authority (OHA) for their commitment to providing high quality, patient-centered care. The PCPCH Program administers the application, recognition, and verification process for practices applying to become Patient-Centered Primary Care Homes. The program is also working with stakeholders across Oregon to support adoption of the primary care home model. For more information visit www.PrimaryCareHome.oregon.gov.

The mission of the PCPCH Program is to be a trusted partner in primary care, collaborating with stakeholders to set the standard for transformative, whole-person, and evidence-based care.
