<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Visits provided OHA's Independent Consultant, Pam Hyde, the opportunity to see programs and providers throughout Oregon and to learn what challenges people are experiencing in regards to implementing the OPP.</li> <li>Visits included: CCOs, CMHPs, SRTFs, Acute Care Psychiatric Facilities, EDs, ACT Teams and Sheriff's.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>April 2017: Visit included Eugene, southern Oregon, and the coast</li> <li>May 2017: Visit included Bend and Eastern Oregon</li> </ul> </li> <li>Pam's next visit is scheduled for the week of August 14, 2017.               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Request to have OHA share Pam's schedule prior to visit.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Agenda Item Added	Washington County Walk-in Center	Kristin Burke
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>New Hawthorne Walk-in Center in Washington County has opened.</li> <li>The Center is an investment that was made using a combination of state and county general funds with some funding from CCOs to consolidate all of the crisis services.</li> </ul>

- Mobile crisis team, peer crisis services, and the mental health response team, which pairs deputies with clinicians, as well as the intensive transition team to help get people out of the hospital are all located together in the building.
- The Center can see walk-ins.
- The whole idea of it is to not only have a place where people in crisis can go, but to make it a hub where people can easily access mental health and addiction services.
- Clinicians can help people navigate to get connected to care and to try and get in front of the crisis.
- In 2018 the 24/7 crisis line in will be incorporated into the Center.
