RULE SUMMARY: Amending dispensing limitations for hormone therapies and other changes are based on Department of Justice feedback to correct outdated terminology and clarify definitions.

CHANGES TO RULE:

410-121-0146
Dispensing Limitations ¶

(1) The ~~Division of Medical Assistance Programs (Division)~~Authority shall reimburse the pharmacy for dispensed medication the lesser of: ¶
(a) The quantity indicated by the prescriber on the prescription; ¶
(b) The quantity indicated by the ~~Division~~Authority's dispensing limitations as outlined in this rule; or ¶
(c) The quantity needed for Prescription Synchronization. ¶
(2) The pharmacy may only dispense less than the prescribed quantity when the prescribed quantity exceeds the ~~Division~~Authority's dispensing limitations, or when a lesser quantity is needed for Prescription Synchronization. ¶
(3) The pharmacy may, at the ~~client~~member's direction, dispense less than the prescribed quantity of a maintenance medication in order to align the refill dates if the ~~client~~member has received the same dose for two months or more. ¶

(4) Unless otherwise specified in this rule, the ~~Division~~Authority shall not reimburse claims for medications exceeding a 34-day supply. ¶
(5) A~~ny~~ll pharmacy provider~~s~~ shall be reimbursed for up to a 100-day supply of preferred drugs in the following Standard Therapeutic Classes of medications: ¶
(a) Ataractics, Tranquilizers - 07; ¶
(b) Psychostimulants, Antidepressants - 11; ¶
(6) Exceptions to the 34-day supply do not apply to claims for the following Standard Therapeutic Classes of medications. Claims exceeding a 34-day supply for these medications shall not be reimbursed under any circumstances: ¶
(a) Muscle Relaxants - 08; ¶
(b) CNS Stimulants - 10; ¶
(c) Amphetamine Preps - 12; ¶
(d) Narcotic Analgesics - 40; ¶
(e) Sedative Barbiturate - 46; ¶
(f) Sedative Non-Barbiturate - 47. ¶
(7) The ~~Division shall allow~~Authority may reimburse~~ment~~ for more than a 34-day supply if the medication's original package size cannot be divided or when primary insurance (third party liability) pays for a larger day supply. ¶
(8) Except for medications listed in subsections (5) and (6) of this rule, claims for up to a 100-day supply of the following types of medications may be reimbursed to the ~~Division~~Authority's mail order pharmacy contractor, Indian Health mail order pharmacy providers, and 340B providers: ¶
(a) A PDL generic; and ¶
(b) A generic drug not on the PDL, costing $10 per month or less. ¶
(9) A~~ny~~ll pharmacy provider~~s~~ shall be reimbursed for up to a 365-day supply of family planning drugs. ¶
(10) ~~Selected medications identified by the Division shall be limited to a 15-day supply for initial fills. These medications have been identified~~Notwithstanding subsection (4) and subsection (11) of this rule, the Authority shall reimburse all pharmacy providers for up to a 365-day supply of preferred drugs within the following Standard Therapeutic Classes, provided that the specific drug dispensed can be stored at room temperature. This subsection is a standalone exception to the day supply limitations in subsections (5), (7), and (8). If the medication is a controlled substance, reimbursement is limited to the maximum day supply permitted under state and federal law. The applicable Standard Therapeutic Classes are: ¶
(a) Estrogen - Standard Therapeutic Class 61 ¶
(b) Progesterone - Standard Therapeutic Class 62 ¶
(c) Aldosterone antagonists - Standard Therapeutic Class 53 ¶
