

Community Listening Sessions about Behavior Rehabilitation Services Rules

The Oregon Health Authority (OHA), Oregon Department of Human Services (ODHS) and Oregon Youth Authority (OYA) want to hear from people with lived experience of Behavior Rehabilitation Services (BRS). This feedback will help OHA, ODHS and OYA make changes to BRS rules in 2024.

Who can attend?

The sessions are for:

- Current or past BRS clients,
- Family members of BRS clients,
- Others with lived experience, and
- People who help BRS clients. This could include ombudspersons, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), and other advocates.

Listening session dates, times and topics:

Date and Time	Topics for clients and their advocates	Link to Register
November 7, 2023 5:05 to 6 p.m.	How the state makes and updates rules Question and answer session How to best engage clients, families and advocates	bit.ly/session110723
November 28, 2023 3:35 to 4:55 p.m.	Ideas and changes people would like in BRS Ideas people have shared in the past	bit.ly/session112823
February 20, 2024 3:35 to 4:55 p.m.	Look at draft rule changes together What people like about the changes Other changes they would like	bit.ly/session022024

Other ways to give feedback about BRS rules:

You can also give feedback in these ways:

- In writing after the Rules Advisory Committee meets to discuss the rule changes.
- As a member of the Rules Advisory Committee that will discuss the rule changes.
- In writing when ODHS, OHA and OYA post the changes for public comment.
- At the public hearing about the posted rule changes. This is the last part of the feedback process.

Dates and times for the Rules Advisory Committee, public comment period and hearing will be later in 2024. They will be on OHA's BRS web page at that time:
