a. Describe the program in which this position exists. Include program purpose, who's affected, size and scope. Include relationship to agency mission.

The Oregon Health Authority (OHA) is the State's lead agency for health policy engaged in lowering the cost of health care and expanding access to quality health care for all Oregonians. The Agency administers federal Medicaid and State funds to support Oregon's public and behavioral health mission, goals, and objectives. With over 5,000 active employees, OHA carries out Oregon's statewide health priorities and manages the largest budget of any Oregon state agency (over $34 billion), operating major divisions like the Health Systems Division (over $24 billion), the Public Employees' Benefit Board (over $2.5 billion), the Oregon Educators Benefit Board (over $2 billion), Behavioral Health Division (over $1.5 billion), and the Oregon State Hospital (over $1billion), which functions similarly to a standalone agency. In part, OHA's budget provides for:

- Health coverage for about 1.7 million Oregonians through the Oregon Health Plan, Health Insurance Marketplace, and benefit boards
- Behavioral health services for over 50,000 people via community programs
- 24-hour psychiatric care for around 600 individuals, at a time, at the Oregon State Hospital three campuses
- Statewide disease prevention and wellness services for all Oregonians (approx. 4.3 million) through the Public Health Division

OHA's mission is to help Oregonians and Oregon communities achieve optimum physical, mental, and social well-being through partnerships, disease prevention, and access to quality, affordable health care. OHA's work has three broad goals; to improve the lifelong health of all Oregonians, increase the quality, reliability, and availability of care for all residents, and lower or contain the cost of care so it is affordable to everyone.

OHA's Core Values include:

Health Equity:

- Eliminating health disparities and working to attain the highest level of health for all people.
- Ensuring the quality, affordability, and accessibility of health services for all Oregonians.
- Integrating social justice, social determinants of health, diversity, and community.

Service Excellence:

- Understanding and responding to Oregon public health needs and the people we serve.
- Pursing our commitment to innovation and science-based best practices.
- Fostering a culture of continuous improvement.

Integrity:

- Working honestly and ethically in our obligation to fulfill our public health mission.
- Ensuring responsible stewardship in public health resources.

Leadership:

- Building agency-wide and community-wide opportunities for collaboration.
- Championing public health expertise and best practices.
- Creating opportunities for individual development and leadership.

Partnership:

- Working with stakeholders and communities to protect and promote the health of all Oregonians.
- Seeking and respecting internal and external ideas.
- Exploring and defining the roles and responsibility of public health staff and partners.

Innovation:

 Committing to new ways to solve problems and developing new evidence that evolves public health practice.

Transparency:

 Communicating openly and honestly and ensuring meaningful opportunities to solicit input and participate in decision-making.

Health Equity:

Oregon will have established a health system that creates health equity when all people can reach their full health potential and well-being and are not disadvantaged by their race, ethnicity, language, disability, age, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, social class, intersections among these communities or identities, or other socially determined circumstances.

Achieving health equity requires the ongoing collaboration of all regions and sectors of the state, including tribal governments to address:

- The equitable distribution or redistribution of resources and power; and
- Recognizing, reconciling, and rectifying historical and contemporary injustices.

The Oregon State Hospital

Established in 1862 and constructed at its current site in 1883, the Oregon State Hospital (OSH) is the oldest operating psychiatric hospital in Oregon, located in Salem with a satellite campus in Junction City. OSH provides a 24/7 patient-centered psychiatric treatment for adults who need hospital-level care, focusing on recovery and reintegration into the community. Services include psychiatric evaluation, diagnosis, treatment planning, and various support programs. The hospital is accredited by the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Health Organizations. The Salem campus can serve up to 558 people, and the Junction City campus can serve up to 145. The hospital employs more than 2,000 staff and serves over 1,500 people annually. OSH aims to provide therapeutic, evidence-based, patient-centered treatment in a safe environment, inspiring hope and supporting recovery for all patients.

OHA Office of Human Resources

The OHA Office of Human Resources OHR provides a comprehensive ecosystem for leveraging the talent of over 5000 employees to achieve the Agency's mission and goals generally, and OSH's mission and goals particularly. The OHA Office of Human Resources provides for employee wellness and their development through all stages of the employee life cycle. The breadth and complexity of OHA's core programs and of the work of its executive, managerial, professional, and technical staff requires the full array of human resources support. The OHA Office of Human Resources is committed to creating a healthy and equitable working environment that ensures the Agency's talent is highly engaged and may thrive in the objective of helping Oregonians and their communities achieve optimum physical, mental, and social well-being, and in furthering OHA's strategic goal to eliminate health inequities in Oregon.

b. Describe the primary purpose of this position, and how it functions within this program. Complete this statement. The primary purpose of this position is to:

Provide HR Labor Relations administrative oversight and stewardship to the Oregon State Hospital. This position will align State and federal labor relations laws, rules, policies, practices, and initiatives with OSH's overarching strategic goals, ensuring that the workforce is highly engaged, productive, and equipped to support the Hospital's ongoing mission and long-term HR operational needs. Incumbents will provide 24/7 human resources labor relations services, leadership, and direction to a high-profile Division of a "level 2" State Agency for the full scope of State HR functions.

SECTION 4. WORKING CONDITIONS

Describe any on-going working conditions. Include any physical, sensory, and environmental demands. State the frequency of exposure to these conditions.

This position requires the provision of 24/7 labor relations service availability to the organization. The incumbent will typically work a professional work week where the hours of work may fluctuate on a daily and weekly basis and who may be required to work irregulary hours based on a 24/7 framework either at a remote location or at a designated Agency office depending on the needs of the Agency. Additionally, the position requires the employee to communicate well, and articulate clear directives that guide overall performance, Agency policy, and organizational development concepts with all levels of staff. Incumbents in this position will be accountable to exercise professional managerial level decision making and have responsibility for all aspects of HR labor relations under their oversight. Incumbents need to exercise extreme public sector acumen and political discretion and will be required to use a high degree of managerial expertise framed by subject matter expertise in all aspects of the field of human resources. The position will use all modalities of communication to direct and set expectations of subordinate staff, and communicate with business partners at all organizational levels, and with external business partners and other relevant entities. Furthermore, the incumbent will be required to possess proficiency in the use of information technology to perform work and to communicate and meet with staff, management, and internal and external business partners. Work may require long periods of time communicating with groups of all sizes and individuals through a variety of communication methods, including in-person (face-toface), through telecommunications devices, or streaming media platforms. Work may also include physical proximity with other employees when providing direction or while engaged in basic managerial/supervisory activities. Incumbents in this position will also be subject to competing workloads and priorities while dealing with highly complex, sensitive, and/or confidential materials. There may be occasional contact with angry or confused employees, managers, executives, or other business partners on issues that can be emotionally charged and need to be de-escalated. Occasional travel may occur to perform onsite work requiring a valid driver's license or alternative method of getting to work sites. Worksites may be in an Agency employees' home, traditional office workspace, or other designated non-traditional office locations as determined by the superordinate administrator.

SECTION 5. GUIDELINES

- a. List any established guidelines used in this position, such as state or federal laws or regulations, policies, manuals, or desk procedures:
  - Oregon Revised Statutes
  - Department of Administrative Service Personnel Rules and Policies
  - State DOJ guidance.
  - EEOC guidance
  - Agency Resources Manuals
  - Agency Affirmative Action Plan
  - Collective Bargaining Agreements
  - Oregon Administrative Rules
  - Federal and State Labor Law
  - Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries Rules and guidelines
  - Labor Relations Division Updates
  - Employee Relations Board Updates
  - OHA Mission Statements, Values and Principles

b. How are these guidelines used?

To ensure Agency-wide compliance and alignment with all relevant Statewide and Agency HR policies, State and federal labor laws, Oregon Administrative rules, and Statewide HR practice that help mitigate legal and reputational risks to the Oregon Health Authority and foster an inclusive environment where all employees will feel valued and empowered to succeed and have a sense of belonging.
