WE'RE DIFFERENT – A UNIQUE APPROACH TO ORAL HEALTH

Willamette Dental Group's practice philosophy focuses on proactive dental care.

Proactive care means focusing on preventing disease rather than treating it surgically.

This is achieved by practicing evidence-based dentistry.

Dr. Edwin Chung's Biography

Dr. Chung is proud of his service in the armed forces after dental school. When he learned about Willamette Dental Group's approach to dentistry, that was something he wanted to be a part of as well. Within the company's group practice setting, he can work and share with amazing dentists and specialists as they strive toward one common goal of making patients healthier. He can still remember when his father, also a practitioner, taught him about dentistry so many years ago, bringing him to work and sharing his daily routine.

On days off he enjoys running and exercise, pastimes that both refresh and energize.

Education

- Loma Linda University - Dental School

Professional Associations

- American Dental Association
- Snohomish County Dental Society
- Washington State Dental Association
