Dental Plans Options
You are not required to enroll in a dental plan, but to enroll in a dental plan you must be enrolled in a medical plan choice. You may enroll yourself, your spouse/domestic partner, and your dependents individually or in any combination. Full-time plans are available to both full-time and part-time employees. Part-time plans are available only to part-time employees. If you enroll in Medical Opt Out you can enroll in a Dental plan.

Each of PEBB’s dental plans provides a member handbook (also called certificate or evidence of coverage) and benefit summary. They are incorporated in this Summary Plan Description by reference and are available for download as printable documents on each plan’s website. Carefully review the plans’ member handbooks and service areas to see which one best fits your and your family’s dental care needs. Links to the dental plans’ customer service contacts and member handbooks are on the PEBB website: www.oregon.gov/oha/pebb link to plan documents.
