

Baker City, October 27
Draft Learning Objectives

1. Participants will understand the difference between a policy strategy and a communications strategy
2. Participants will understand the communications continuum and be able to craft messages and a communications strategy based on its use.
3. Participants will know what support is available to them from the statewide communications program.