Oregon Parks and Recreation Division will take comments and present its case to the OPRD Commission in November. Two or three people on the call said that they would go to one of the four public hearings.

Fines for violating the law could be administered up to $500.
Signs will be posted, but Rebecca was unsure of the details.

3. Oregon Parks & Recreation Conference Presentation Discussion

The conference presentation will be held on September 8 in Seaside. Emily asked for suggested revision of the excellent slides Carla created. The panel will consist of parks people from Salem, Stayton and Tualatin Valley Parks and Recreation.

Diana discussed the Smokefree Parks brochure and took suggestions for revisions. The brochure will include a link to the state TPEP website.

4. Group Updates

Janet: First tobacco-free county fair last week went well.

Jim: Third year of tobacco-free county fair is going well. Kids are gathering signatures to eliminate the smoking areas in the carnival area where lots of carnie workers gather.

Tiffany seeks help on putting together an assessment of smoking in parks.

Scott: The county board of commissioners is hearing a proposal to add e-cigs to its county designated smoking area policy

Amanda: did assessment of parks. Ordinance bans tobacco in parks, but people are

Emily: smoking banned at Movies in Park. Some people are smoking.
