

FluBites

September 27, 2026- October 03, 2026

Influenza surveillance data at a glance
	Percent Positivity ^a	Hospitalizations ^b
Current Week	3.6%	10
Previous Week	3.2%	14

^a Data from National Respiratory and Enteric Virus Surveillance System (NREVSS)

^b Hospitalization surveillance in Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington counties only

Influenza Test Results in Oregon, NREVSS, Current Week
Region	Influenza A	Influenza B	Total Tests	Percent Positivity
1	24 (3.5%)	1 (0.1%)	684	3.7%
2	9 (2.2%)	0 (0.0%)	400	2.2%
3	1 (1.1%)	0 (0.0%)	91	1.1%
5	9 (2.9%)	0 (0.0%)	309	2.9%
6	0 (0.0%)	0 (0.0%)	0	0.0%
7	21 (5.4%)	0 (0.0%)	391	5.4%
9	1 (0.5%)	0 (0.0%)	219	0.5%

Oregon Influenza Percent Positivity by Region

Percent Positivity 0 10 20 30 40 50

Regions with insufficient data are displayed as grey

Influenza Hospitalizations

The Oregon Health Authority conducts population-based surveillance for laboratory-confirmed hospitalizations associated with influenza in Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington counties during October 1, 2025 - September 1, 2026. To date, 1083 hospitalizations have occurred during the 2025-2026 season. There were 10 hospitalizations reported during September 27, 2026 - October 03, 2026. The cumulative hospitalization rate for the 2025-2026 season is 59.8 per 100,000 people.

2025-2026 Influenza-Associated Hospitalizations
Age Group (years)	N	Rate per 100,000 people
0-4	36	41.6
5-17	80	30.2
18-49	176	20.8
50-64	160	48.9
65+	631	210.3

Rates of Influenza-associated Hospitalizations
by Week and Age Group
2025-2026 Season

Laboratory Data

3.6% of specimens tested for influenza were positive during September 27, 2026 - October 03, 2026. 27.7% of positive influenza specimens tested at the Oregon State Public Health Laboratory (OSPHL) this season are influenza A (H1N1), % are influenza A (H3), and 4.4% are influenza B. National laboratory trends can be found at CDC FluView. Regional laboratory data trends from the 2025-2026 season can be found in Appendix A. Historic statewide laboratory data can be found on the OHA Respiratory Dashboard.

Oregon Influenza Laboratory Surveillance

Percent Positive Influenza Tests by Week

Oregon State Public Health Laboratory (OSPHL) Influenza Testing

2025-2026 Season

Avian Influenza

There has been 1 reported human case of highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) H5N1 in Oregon. More information on avian influenza in humans is available from the CDC. More information on avian influenza in animals is available from the Oregon Department of Agriculture.

Immunization Data

Oregon seasonal influenza immunization data is available from the Oregon Immunization Program.